

Men in Service

Editor's Note: Men in the armed forces, and parents, are invited to see a new series of boys' photographs and articles. Service men, stationed about the country, are happy to hear of their friends. Even the address of a newspaper is included with each of them.

Kenneth Tygard Now Sergeant in Fifth Air Force Command

With AAF SERVICE COMMAND, Southwest Pacific—Kenneth Tygard, who recently was promoted to the grade of sergeant in a unit of the Fifth Air Force Service Command in the Southwest Pacific, returned to his home in Birmingham, Ala., after a tour of duty in the New Guinea campaign.

Before entering the army in September, 1942, Tygard was an automobile mechanic for the Yellow Truck and Coach Co. He has attended the Army Self-Defending Fuel Cell school, Highlands, Mo., and Charles F. Tygard, now live at 528 Old Farm road, Pittsburgh, Pa.
