

High Twelve Club Elects Officers

The Birmingham High Twelve club held its annual election of officers at its meeting, Dec. 11, naming Guy W. Jensen as president for the coming year.

The speaker of the day was Roy E. Brown, president of Brown Art Studios, and a local resident and member of the local club. He entertained the members with some clever chalk sketches in colors. It was announced that Victor Clutch would present his high school choir on the program next week.

Officers to serve with Mr. Jensen for next year include R. P. Cole, first vice-president; S. Merton Adams, second vice-president; Fred McKewen, international representative; Durward P. Barnes, secretary; Otto F. Boier, treasurer; Arthur Ulrich, sergeant-at-arms.

Additional members of the board of directors are W. V. Dubois, immediate past president; Paul T. Smith, Paul E. Helzlsouer and Ralph A. Blair.

Chris Bailey, Head Of Metropolitan Club Spirit 9 For 5th Year

Chris Bailey of the Birmingham post office was elected president of the local Metropolitan Club Spirit No. 9, at the annual election of officers held at the Kingsley Inn Monday evening. Mr. Bailey will serve in this capacity for the fifth consecutive term.

The following officers will be installed at the January meeting: Chris Bailey, president; Don Terry, post office vice president; Norville Ferrall, Bloomfield Hills fire department, recording secretary; John Pennerall, Birmingham fire department, financial secretary; Sylvester Wilkinson, Birmingham post office, treasurer; Kelly Capping, Birmingham post office, sergeant-at-arms. Stanley K. Lewis, Bloomfield Hills policeman, and Stanley Pennerall, Birmingham fire department, will serve two and one year terms, respectively.
