Troop B-8 Enjoys Its Annual Parent's Night

Boy Scout Troop B-8, sponsored by the Birmingham Rotary club, enjoyed its annual Christmas Parents' Night party Tuesday evening at the Scout room in the Community House. All parents and all active Scouts attended, together with many of the troop officers and committee-men.

Featuring the program was the presentation of the Eagle award to Harry Garmat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wagner, 267 Oakland, the award being made by Scoutmaster Dean Mullins. A first class Scout award was made to William Plant by his father, Fletcher Plant, assistant scoutmaster, and Tony Baldwin, junior assistant scoutmaster, received that award.

Henry Price was in charge of the program and various groups of boys presented entertaining skills. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. Now serving on the troop committee are Dr. A. K. Toefler, chairman; William Story, Wilson Wagner and S. B. Kempton. Samuel T. Burns is an assistant scoutmaster in the troop organization.

Cub Scouts

Cub Pack B-8, Adams school, of which Kay R. Lutz is pack chairman and Paul Carter, cabmaster, held their monthly meeting Tuesday night, presenting a program which showed an unusual amount of work and enthusiasm by the Cubs and their Den Mothers.

Each den staged a short, amusing skit based on the theme of the month, "What I Want to Be." In addition, each den displayed surprisingly workable handicraft and interesting scrapbooks. Den mothers are: Den 1, Mrs. Lawrence K. Powers; Den 2, Mrs. Jesse Stedman; Den 3, Mrs. E. K. Leavenworth; Den 4, Mrs. Howard Stuffer; Den 5, Mrs. Patricia Verone; Den 6, Mrs. R. S. Rankin; Den 7, Mrs. A. Dennison; Den 8, Mrs. J. E. Kubacka; Den 9, Mrs. H. A. Wentworth.

Other Pack officials are R. S. Nicholas, treasurer; Fred Whigham, handicraft chairman; Mrs. J. Kubacka, pack mother; and Howard Stuffer and Forrest B. Hubert, assistant cubmasters.
