The Japs are pouring because Stalin classed Japan as an aggressor nation. Apparently they feel that any nation which has the assurance to call a war not incident for six years should be classed as peace-loving.

We WPB, evidently desiring that we start 1945 off with a bang, will allow distillers to make liquor in January. That's the only shortage item we want to see proof of after we get it.

It is reported that Hitler has undergone a throat operation. With a million of his troops depended on the western front since June 6, very likely he developed a chronic gip.
