Alpha Chi Omega Officers Visited in 3 States Over the Week

Three Birmingham women, national officers of Alpha Chi Omega, returned Monday after the week end spent in official fraternal business.

Mrs. Thomas Adams, of Puritan road, Alpha Chi Omega national vice-president, visited the active chapter at the University of Iowa, in Iowa City.

Miss Marjorie Unger, of Bloomfield court, province president represented Alpha Chi Omega at a "Pan-Hellenic week end" at Bowling Green University at Bowling Green, Ohio, at which time national officers from each fraternity on campus were guests of the university.

A banquet was given in their honor Friday night at which the speaker was Dean Alice Lloyd of the University of Michigan. Miss Unger also visited officially the new Alpha Chi chapter.

Mrs. G. K. Phares, of Henrietta street, spent the week end in Evansville, Ind., where she installed a new alumnae chapter of Alpha Chi Omega. After the installation a tea was given in her honor at which 125 guests were present. Mrs. Phares is a district chairman, supervising alumnae chapters and clubs in Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Toronto.

These groups are all contributors to the war nursery school project which supplies all equipment for large groups of children in Detroit. The Birmingham alumnae chapter will donate $50 to the school and buy a new book for the school as its special Christmas contribution.

Methodist Women To Hold Election

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of the First Methodist church will be held Wednesday, Dec. 13, at 1:15 o'clock.

This will be the annual meeting, with election of officers for the coming year, and the names in the newly assembled groups will be read at the time.

The Rev. A. F. Runkel will lead in devotions and there will be special music by the ladies' quartette: "The True Story of the Inn Keeper," which he told by Mrs. Amos F. Gregory.

A Christmas tea will be served. Mrs. H. E. Murray has extended an invitation to all the church women to attend a Christmas tea at her home, on Puritan Wednesday, Dec. 20, at 2:15 o'clock.

Missionary Society To Meet December 7

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Redeemer Lutheran church will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, Dec. 7, in the church lounge.

Mrs. Berthold Rosenquist and Mrs. Theonore Waggener will present a Christmas program following the meeting. There will also be a carol sing around the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Lee Mohr and Mrs. Robert McKee will be hostesses at the church meeting.

Garden Club Women Preparing Greens Market, Dec. 13-14-15

The Bloomfield and Birmingham branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association are preparing for their Christmas greens market, to be held Dec. 13, 14 and 15 in the shops of Walton-Pierce in the Woman's City Club of Detroit.

Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. Clarence H. Booth and their co-workers state that due to their early planning, the market will offer every traditional type of Christmas greens.

In addition to the greens, the market will offer gift seekers such farm-and-garden delicacies as farm-canned chickens, wild berry jams, maple preserves and other farm and garden products. Other interesting Christmas gifts are figurine candles, stuffed toy animals and dolls and hand made and hand loomed articles. The boys' choir of St. Paul's Cathedral will chant carols at the market.

It will warm your heart to know that a service man or woman will be able to take that precious trip home—maybe a last furloUGH before sailing—because you planned your year-end travel in advance.

You can help give the armed forces first call on seats when they need them—and be more comfortable yourself—by traveling early in the month, and by choosing half week days. It's win-win, too, to take less luggage, and to be at the terminal well before departure time.

Greyhound is doing its utmost to keep wartime travel moving smoothly — and your continued good-natured cooperation will help buses serve more people better.

HERE'S HOW YOUR BILL WILL BE CUT 75%

In accordance with an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission, all bills rendered to electric, gas and steam-heating customers of Consumers Power Company during December, 1944, will be reduced 75 per cent.

Thus, money which otherwise would go to the Federal Government in taxes will be refunded to our customers, together with additional money from Company funds.

Your bill will be figured as usual. Then the amount of the reduction will be written in as indicated on the sample bill shown below. The net amount of the reduced bill appears at the right hand side of the bill — only 25 per cent of what you normally would pay.
