IS NAVAL STORE KEEPER
 U. S. NAVY AIR STATION Jacksonville, Fla.—Tom D. Grimshaw, 677 Chapin avenue, Birmingham, Mich., recently graduated from the Aviation Storekeepers' school here and was rated an aviation storekeeper third class in the U. S. Navy.

Entering the Navy March 23, 1944, he received his receipting at Farragut, Idaho, before being transferred to the Naval Air Station, Mich., to report for duty. Grimshaw is now a qualified aviation storekeeper and will probably see service with a Naval Air Unit.

Lt. Ralph T. Jans, U.S.M.C., has left for duty in the South Pacific theatre. He graduated from the University of Michigan in the program last March. In September he graduated from the officer candidate school of Cannon University, N. C. After a month's training in the reserve officer school he received his commission in the regular army and then reported for active duty.
