Many Fine Books Added to List at Baldwin Library

Comes a time when the most determinedly extraverted of us yearn for a little peace and quiet. We picture ourselves with the control of the co

Rio Red, by Galen Colin. Tramp printer, Rio Red found himself in hienty of trouble when he wan-dered into the grim little town of Mariposa.

GETTING UP NIGHTS Makes Many Feel Old

Do you feel older than you are or suffer from getting up nights, backache, nervousness and leg pains? Do you have dizziness, swollen ankles, rheumatic pains, burning, scanty or frequent passages? If so, send for FREE BOOK, P. O. Box 701, Department R5, Pontiac, Michigan.

A REMINDER

every time you snap an ELECTRIC SWITCH

Ordinarily when you snap an electric switch that turns on your lamps and electrical appliances, you need give no thought to the miracle that makes this

But behind your electric switch are thousands of men and huge power plants and far-flung transmission lines and complex electric equipment — all essential in the manufacture of electricity. Thousands of tons of coal are burned every day to bring you electric power.

Today it is important to think of what lies behind your electric switch. Let every switch and electric outlet be a reminder — a "string around your finger" — of the need for saving electricity whenever and wherever you can. Even though electricity is not rationed and there is no shortage in this area, the Government asks you to CONSERVE in store and office and home, thus saving coal and trans-portation and mannower.
