Warning to Birmingham Dog Owners

The Michigan State Department of Agriculture has imposed a dog uarantine on Oakland County and has instructed Birmingham Police and other police and the sheriff's department to enforce the order.

Owners of dogs are forbidden to allow their dogs to run at large and stiff fine and jail sentence are provided for persons who violate the order.

The order states that "Any officer killing a dog pursuant to the provisions of the order shall not be subject to any liability therefor,"

But persons who allow their dogs to run at large may be arrested and, upon conviction, may be fined as much as $100 and sent to jail for not more than 90 days.

The dog quarantine period is from Feb. 1, 1944, to May 1, 1944,

The co-operation of Birmingham dog owners is asked to the end that the dread dog disease of rabies may be stamped out in this area.
