

"Don't Know How It Happened" at Village Playhouse February 24, 25, 26

Mrs. Bruce Gregory Is Honored At Tea By Women Golfers

Spring flowers were plentiful throughout the private dining rooms at the DAC yesterday when the women golfers of Oakland Hills Country Club gathered for the second of their winter parties. This was a bridge tea given specifically to honor Mrs. Raymond M. McGuire who, with Mr. McGuire, will leave Feb. 26 to reside in Montclair, N. J., and Mrs. Bruce H. Gregory of Molegans road, who, with her small daughter, Peri, will join Mr. Gregory in Santa Barbara, Calif.

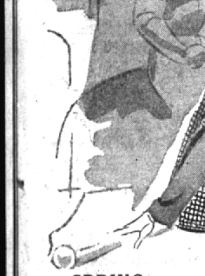

There was a corsage of Belmont gardenias for each of the honored ladies, who were also presented with a pair of hurricane lamps as a remembrance of the occasion. Mrs. McGuire was smartly tailored in gray. Her tiny hat was lilac. Mrs. Gregory chose a dressmaker suit of navy blue and a small hat of shocking pink. Mrs. Harry E. Reiver was chairman of this party. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Charles Merritt, Mrs. William Guse, Mrs. Robert Tanner, and Mrs. Damon Gull. Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. Gull also presided at the tea table, which was covered by a Madeira cloth and centered by a large bowl of tulips. The tea napkins bore the names of the honored guests as well as a bon voyage message.

HAVE YOU HERNIA?

Learn Back! Drooped Shoulders! Have You Had An Operation? ASK YOUR DOCTOR ABOUT SPENCERS

Mrs. Ila E. Sewell Registered Spence Curstine 685 PIERCE B'ham 3534

SPENCER CORSETS & BRASSIERES ARE INDIVIDUALLY DESIGNED

SPRING DISPLAY

Bright new materials for ladies and gentlemen. Shepherd Plaids In a variety of beautiful shades.

also GABARDINES

MATTHEWS

Tailor and Furrier We Own and Operate Our Own Cleaning Plant

Mary Latham Weds Rev. Richardson At St. Pauls Episcopal

The marriage of Mary Griffith Latham, daughter of Mrs. Charles Kellogg Latham, of Southfield, and the Rev. William Price Richardson, of the Rev. William Price Richardson, was celebrated at St. Paul's Episcopal church, 1000 Woodward avenue, yesterday afternoon, Feb. 16.

World Day of Prayer To Be February 25

The World Day of Prayer service, sponsored locally by the women of the various churches of Birmingham, will be held in the All Saints' Episcopal church, Pontiac, the Rev. Bates G. Burt and the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated.

The women of the different churches will take part in the service. There will be a combined choir of all churches.

Mrs. William Price Richardson

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Richardson, of Lexington, Ky., was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Feb. 9, in the All Saints' Episcopal church, Pontiac. The Rev. Bates G. Burt and the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated.

Miss Latham wore a gown of ice white satin, fashioned with a wide, ruffled collar and long light sleeves. The full skirt ended in a court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Helen Latham was her sister's maid of honor, and was dressed in coffee satin. With this she wore a matching flower in her hair and carried a bouquet of violets and pink carnations.

Barbara Latham was the flower girl and Charles K. Latham, III, acted as ring bearer. John S. Richardson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to Palm Beach, Mrs. Richardson wore a navy blue suit under a beige chesterfield coat. Her hat and accessories were of navy. She wore a gardenia corsage. They will make their home in Pontiac.

When cooking foods that keep well, seasonally prepare enough for two meals, and plan to use the food a different way at the second serving. This saves time and fuel.

Hotels Cannot Be Compared to YORBA LINDA

This gorgeous estate has sleeping quarters to suit particular people. Only 15 minutes by bus or car to this paradise.

Moderate Rates

DIRECTIONS: 2 miles South of Birmingham on Woodward Ave. near 13 Mile Road. Watch for sign: "YORBA LINDA TOURIST ROOMS"

Village Players to Present Jeanne Delahanty Married Feb. 9th

Holy Name church was the scene of the morning wedding of Jeanne Delahanty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Delahanty, of Southfield, and Mr. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mary Latham Weds Rev. Richardson At St. Pauls Episcopal

The marriage of Mary Griffith Latham, daughter of Mrs. Charles Kellogg Latham, of Southfield, and the Rev. William Price Richardson, of the Rev. William Price Richardson, was celebrated at St. Paul's Episcopal church, 1000 Woodward avenue, yesterday afternoon, Feb. 16.

Miss Latham wore a gown of ice white satin, fashioned with a wide, ruffled collar and long light sleeves. The full skirt ended in a court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Helen Latham was her sister's maid of honor, and was dressed in coffee satin. With this she wore a matching flower in her hair and carried a bouquet of violets and pink carnations.

Barbara Latham was the flower girl and Charles K. Latham, III, acted as ring bearer. John S. Richardson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to Palm Beach, Mrs. Richardson wore a navy blue suit under a beige chesterfield coat. Her hat and accessories were of navy. She wore a gardenia corsage. They will make their home in Pontiac.

Mrs. William Price Richardson

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Richardson, of Lexington, Ky., was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, Feb. 9, in the All Saints' Episcopal church, Pontiac. The Rev. Bates G. Burt and the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated.

Miss Latham wore a gown of ice white satin, fashioned with a wide, ruffled collar and long light sleeves. The full skirt ended in a court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Helen Latham was her sister's maid of honor, and was dressed in coffee satin. With this she wore a matching flower in her hair and carried a bouquet of violets and pink carnations.

Barbara Latham was the flower girl and Charles K. Latham, III, acted as ring bearer. John S. Richardson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

When the couple left for their wedding trip to Palm Beach, Mrs. Richardson wore a navy blue suit under a beige chesterfield coat. Her hat and accessories were of navy. She wore a gardenia corsage. They will make their home in Pontiac.

Gov. Kelly's Juvenile Legislative Program To Be Discussed by League of Women Voters

The next monthly meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be held at the Community House at 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 21.

The period since the last meeting has been one of great activity in various fields for different component groups in the League. The first part of the morning session will be devoted to a summary of the membership, the total work which has been put through. Mrs. Ralph L. Yonker, president of the local League will describe these activities, the status of Governor Kelly's Juvenile Program, and important bills now pending in Congress.

Coffee will be served at 12 o'clock. Members and visitors, who are always welcome, are asked to bring their own luncheon sandwiches.

The afternoon program will be directed by Mrs. John K. Ormond, chairman of the Government and its Operation committee. Mrs. Henry Foley, Mrs. John May, Mrs. Wilbur Johnston, Mrs. J. R. Quinn and Mrs. Hugh A. White, members of the committee, together with Mrs. Ormond, will describe the Murray-Wagner-Dingell social security bill. While no attempt will be made to take a stand on the bill, its provisions will be set forth in order to give league members a better knowledge of the bill itself.

"The Patriots" To Be Given In Connection With International Relations Class, Tuesday

Members of the dramatic classes of Carl G. Wonnberger, of Cranbrook will present, at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Feb. 22, in the Community House, cuttings from "The Patriots." This program will not only mark Washington's birthday but will also portray a comparison of the urgency and anxiety of war times.

The parts of Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton, Madison and Monroe will be played by members of the dramatic classes of both Kingwood and Cranbrook schools and also members of the faculty. Among those taking part will be Patricia Newhall, Martina McKinney, Charles Stewart, Ken Wood, and William LaMeasure. The time is 1790-1801.

The program will be given in connection with Mrs. Charles Shain's International Relations Class. The public is cordially invited.

Farm and Garden Club Hears Talk On "Wartime Table Arrangements"

The fact that beauty may come at small cost was evidenced in the talk by Isabel Zucker, Detroit garden editor, before members of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association Monday afternoon in the Community House. Although Mrs. Zucker kept to her subject, "Wartime Table Arrangements," she cleverly wove into her talk an inspiring philosophy for gardeners and homemakers "in this tired and overworked world" as she said.

"Keep everything simple" she advised, stressing the use of materials at hand. To demonstrate she fashioned an interesting arrangement for a dining table.

She displayed the use of lotus seed pods, dried distels, sea oats, which, without charge to the public at the Center in the Detroit Art Museum on Woodward avenue near Hancock ave. Mrs. Thompson is a member of the Center's board of directors. She is widely known as an authority on gardening and has always given able assistance to any garden project in this and surrounding communities.

Mrs. Thompson was introduced by Mrs. Harvey B. Green.

Virginia Mercer Tells Troth to Cpl. Randall

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Mercer, of Dames street, announced, on Sunday, the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Cpl. George G. Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Randall, of Royal Oak.

Virginia is a graduate of Baldwin high school and the newly formed War Service Garden club committee which she heads. This committee is to serve as a clearing group for all requests for war service contributions to the club. It has sold war bonds, assisted with the Red Cross

Village Players to Present Jeanne Delahanty Married Feb. 9th

Holy Name church was the scene of the morning wedding of Jeanne Delahanty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Delahanty, of Southfield, and Mr. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.

Following their honeymoon in Chicago and Whitefish Bay they will make their home in Durham, N.C., where Cpl. Zeller is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zeller, of Whitefish Bay, Wis., at 9:30 a.m. yesterday, February 9.

For her wedding Jeanne chose a wool suit of hyacinth blue with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her only attendant, Patricia Hassett, of Detroit, wore a dusty pink dress with a blue sash and hat of contrasting shades. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Delahanty chose a dark blue dress with sequin trim. Her hat was silver blue and she wore pink camellias. Mrs. Zeller wore a light blue silk dress with a navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's brother, R.

bert, acted as best man and the bride's brother, Frank, ushered.

Immediately following the service a wedding breakfast was given at the Community House. The bride's table was adorned with a white satin cloth and two large bouquets of spring cuts. Crystal chandeliers and flowers were also used.