Hi-Twelve Installs New Officers Monday

New officers in the Birmingham Hi-Twelve club were formally installed at the club's Ladies' Night dinner meeting Monday evening at the Community House. The party drew the attention of 105 persons and proved a happy occasion.

There was entertainment, including special songs; presentation of a gavel to Norma Berry; presentation of a High Twelve plaque; community singing; dancing and a general good time. Everyone present appeared to be entering into the merriment with a lot of enjoyment.

For next Monday night the club is to have as its guest speaker, William Power, special representative of the War Loan drives all over the country. The attendance committee hopes for 100 members and guests present and asks that reservations be in by Friday.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mrs. H. C. Penny, of Lake Park, has received an announcement of the marriage of her granddaughter, Ensign Gretchen Mary Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kramer, of North Grove, Fla., to Henry Lortz Wagner. The wedding took place in Louisville, Ky., Dec. 18.

Apple peelings should be saved for jellies and jams.

Quartern School

Friday evening, Jan. 7, was the occasion of the induction of a Cub Pack at the Quartern school, Pack B2, sponsored by the Quartern P.T.A. It was formally made a member of the Boy Scout organization by Wallace Christiansen, Scout executive for this district. Cubmaster Homer Dodo, aided by R. F. Webber, assistant cubmaster, gave a short examination to the eight dens before making the boys Bob-Cats. The business meeting was conducted by Cassius L. Miller, chairman of the pack committee, included a report from the finance committee by D. J. Bevis and announcement of the program for the meeting on Jan. 28 by E. W. Averill. Mrs. L. C. Minor has been appointed pack mother and the den mothers include Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Mrs. W. D. Hooper, Mrs. J. C. Bauer, Mrs. W. B. Mainland, Mrs. R. M. W. Shaw, Mrs. R. T. Garrison and Mrs. Chas. McIntyre.

JOINT MEETING

There will be a joint meeting of all P.T.A. groups at the high school Monday, Jan. 24. The meeting will be held in the Baldwin auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Dean W. W. Whitehouse, of the Wayne University formerly of Albion College, will speak on "Youth Guidance."

Barnum's Variety Show To Feature Ventriloquist

Set. Wayne Fernelius and Jerry McFasety, the Charley McCarthy of the Detroit police force, will be presented in the Barnum auditorium.

Arnold Berndt will start the program off with musical arrangements to be followed by a tumbling act sponsored by the Junior high physical director, Jack Brotzman. Victor Ulrich will also present some of his students in a musical program.

Birmingham's own Barbershop Quartette, the Variety Four, will be there to add their bit to the entertainment. Last year they won second place in a contest with all the barbershop quartettes of Michigan. Leo Steers, Tom Carruthers, Archie Livingston and Leah Langlois are in the quartette.

The program, which will start at 8 p. m. is under the chairmanship of Robert Connor, who will assure you that this is one show you should not miss.

Birmingham Woman's Club to Hold Department Meetings

On Tuesday, Jan. 18, the four departments of the Birmingham Woman's Club will hold their meetings.

The American Home department will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Watkins, of Knox street, for a salad luncheon. Mrs. R. J. Bell is chairman, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Whitney and Mrs. W. G. Blumberg. The program will be a book review by Mrs. Carl Binkie.

The Fine Arts department is meeting for a sandwich luncheon with Mrs. H. M. Bringham, of Linden street. The speech class, under Mrs. W. O. Merrill's direction, meets at 12:30 p. m. followed by luncheon. The program chairman is Mrs. Thomas Thurber, who will discuss the way the war has affected the subject, material and viewpoint of the artists. Mrs. Thurber announced the exhibit of the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors, at the Hanna galleries on the 8th floor at Hudson's.

Mrs. John H. Rosso will entertain the Literature department. The program will be the first in a series of Michigan subjects. Mrs. Harry Allen will give a review of the one country in Michigan's history. Mrs. H. D. Donnan will have the literary newscast report. Tea will be served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Luther Heacock.

The Pan-American department will meet with Mrs. S. J. Johnson, on North Woodward. Mrs. Charles J. Shain will give a report on "The Political and Strategic Significance of the Pacific Island World." Tea will be served by Mrs. Katherine Valley and Mrs. L. G. Slusser.

Class In Citizenship to Begin At The Community House, Jan. 19

Adams P.T.A. is offering as a public service a course in Citizenship at the Community House beginning Wednesday evening, Jan. 19, at 7:30 o'clock. The duties of the city manager, the city commission functions, who represents Birmingham in county, state and national legislatures—all these and many more interesting facts about government will be covered in the class. Twenty members must sign up for the course, which will be in session for two hours every Wednesday for twelve weeks, and the fee is $4.00, less in proportion as the class increases in size.

Material will follow an outline made by the State of Michigan designed to assist those who are applying for United States citizenship, but will be presented so as to be of vital interest to every voter.

The instructor, Larned Goodrich, is well qualified for he has his A.B. from Western State Teachers College and his M.A. from the University of Michigan. He is head of the social studies department of the Baldwin high school.

The adult education committee includes Mrs. B. K. Sartz, chairman; Mrs. Alice Paro, Mrs. H. A. Wentworth, Paul Cartwright, and Mrs. Garland Tait.

Baker-O'Connor Nuptials Read At Morning Service

Mrs. Alfred O. Baker

Simplicity was the keynote of the 10 o'clock wedding of Mary

Alice O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor, of Avon Lane, to Lt. Alfred O. Baker, USAF, son of Mrs. William B. Baker, of Steubenville, O., and the late Mr. Baker. The ceremony was read in the Holy Name Church and was officiated at by the Rev. Frank J. McPhillips, of Ann Arbor.

Mary Alice's dress was of gold lame and she wore a matching lame hat. Her corsage was three white orchids. Jayne Flaherty, of Detroit, the bride's only attendant, wore a hat and dress of blue lame and her corsage was of purple orchids. Lt. Frank Friedburg, of Chicago, was the best man.

A wedding breakfast followed at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club for members of the families and the wedding party. The table was spread with a Venise point lace cloth and decorated with bowls of gardenias; the wedding cake was the centerpiece on the bride's table. Mrs. O'Connor received her guests, wearing a green crepe dress with a small pink hat. Mrs. Baker was dressed in black crepe.

Arriving from Steubenville, O., Friday for the wedding were the bridegroom's mother and his two aunts, Mrs. Harry Shaeffer and Mrs. George Shaeffer.

When the Mrs. Baker left for her honeymoon in Chicago she was wearing a brown crepe dress, accented with brown tulle under a pink coat. Her accessories were
