The First Baptist church in Montgomery, Ala., was the scene of the wedding of Winifred F. Moysey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moysey, of Birmingham, U.S.A.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Burket, of Brown street. The Rev. F. J. Tripp officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was performed at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Jan. 22.

The bride, wearing a gown of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice which had a sweetheart neckline outlined with a small edge of lace paillettes, was given in marriage by her father. The same detail was used on the points of the long tapered sleeves and she wore a Juliet cap of lace and paillettes in an embroidered flower design. Her long veil, which fell to the train of the gown, was edged in lace of a rose design. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's mother was her matron-of-honor. Mrs. Moysey wore an alicia blue gown of organza trimmed with Chantilly lace and her flowers were orchids. Mrs. Burket, the bridegroom's mother, also attended the bride. She was gowned in old rose crepe and she wore orchids also.

Immediately following the service there was a reception at the Jefferson Davis hotel in Montgomery.
