

Tenth Graders Are Backing Fourth War Loan with Posters

By MARTHA EBY

In order to promote the Fourth War Loan Drive in Baldwin, the 10 B English classes, under direction of Mrs. Mary Hartwick, are making posters to be placed throughout the school at the beginning of the new semester. Original slogans have been contributed by the students, from which the most clever will be selected to be used on the posters.

Peter Dixon and Bob Hughes are co-chairmen of this committee, while others working with them are Almeron Mitchell, Howard Hammons, Harriet Thompson, Janet Fox, Louis Keenan, Phyllis Jones, Marilyn Johnson, Susan Reeder, Lawrence Long, Buz Eby, Charlotte Kline, and Dorothy Adams.

Clara White is in charge of the bulletin board in Mrs. Hartwick's room which will also feature the Fourth War Loan Drive.

The Tamer Husband: "You'll never get that new dog of yours to mind you."
Wife: "Oh, yes, I will. You were just as unmanageable yourself at first."

Miss Peggy Kohr, Birmingham, And Other U.S.O. Hostesses Help U. of M. Grid Star Write Letter To Girl Back Home

Coaching from the sidelines is being given Marine Trainee Olshanski by three of the hostesses at the new Ann Arbor community USO just opened.

Olshanski, football star and letterman at the University of Michigan, comes from Wausau, Wisconsin. One night at the USO he started to write a letter home to his girl. He got stuck after "Dear Mary." Soon gathered around to help him were: Peggy Kohr, Joan Gallan and Dorothy Kittredge. Peggy is the daughter of the Robert Kohrs, 1083 E. Maple.

The USO is a joint project of the town and University. For the 4,000 service men in training it provides recreational facilities, telephone message service, checking, an information and a date bureau, lending library, mending, handicraft and game rooms.

Let's make this the KNOCKOUT PUNCH!

Buy an extra war bond today

On the battle fronts, our men are putting every last ounce of effort into the grim job of ending the war at the earliest possible moment. We at home can do no less.

YOUR fighting can take the form of war bonds. Every extra bond you buy is an added blow against the Axis. Every dollar you put into the Fourth War Loan Drive is one more weapon in a mighty arsenal to overwhelm the enemy and bring a decision sooner.

In this crucial battle, let's concentrate everything we have. Let's make this the knockout punch. In the words of our fighting men, let's "pour it on" to hurry the day of Victory!

Student Congress In Its First Tie Vote

For the first time in the history of Baldwin's Student Congress, a tie vote resulted in Friday's election of president. After a successful campaign, the Baldwin voters returned Bill Garfield as their second term as president after breaking a tie vote with Charlie Matthews in a special ballot Monday morning.

Garfield's other opponents were Lloyd Harvey, Nancy Neumann, and Jeanne Wilkens.

The new vice-president of the Student Congress is Bob Erwin, secretary, Gerry Flynn, and treasurer, Ted Mansfield.

The regular semi-annual campaign assembly was held Tuesday, January 20. The assembly was filled with its usual humor, and novelties, and campaign speeches were given by the nominees and their campaign managers.
