

Recreation Head Sends Message To U. S. Boys, Girls

Howard Braucher, president of the National Recreation Association, has just made public a message received from John E. W... ambassador to the Court of St. James and first vice-president of the National Recreation, to the children of the playgrounds of America...

Birmingham Money Has Gone To Help Get Mail To Local Boys On U. S. Ships

Every year Birmingham residents are asked to give and donate to the Detroit War Chest. Those who give will be especially interested in where their money has gone. And they will be doubly interested to know if any of it has gone to aid Birmingham boys...

Bits of Birmingham

(Continued from Page 2, Part 2) reasonable increases in possession limits fixed by statute for Michigan game fishes. Meanwhile, the conservation department is busy saying "Sorry" to local and other renters who want to save more than a taste of fresh fish for out-of-season days to come.

NEARLY EVERY DAY one reads of some new device to make living easier and pleasanter in the postwar home. Automatic dishwashers, quick-freeze cabinets, automatic home lighting, garbage disposal units, television sets, fluorescent lighting, air conditioning... the list is endless and varied. But all have one thing in common: They all operate by ELECTRICITY.

TODAY'S TASTE TEMPTER... Here's a tiptop summer recipe from our Home Service Department: Curried Shrimp in Green Peppers. 2 cups medium white sauce 1 cup shrimp 2 tablespoons pimento 1/2 teaspoon curry...

GOOD DEED FOR THE DAY... Boy Scout Robert Neal, Troop 343, recently performed a public service and did his duty as a Scout by warning people away from electric wires that had fallen in an alley in Detroit.
