

Red Cross Benefit Day To Be Held At Oakland Hills Club On Friday, July 28th

McCurry-Hafner Vows are Spoken at Nuptial Mass Here

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown in white satin fashioned with a long train outlined in alencon lace which was brought up the front of the dress to form a V. The snug fitting bodice with sweetheart neckline was encircled with a border of the same lace and the long sleeves tapered to points at the wrist. She carried a white prayer book with a small bouquet of stephanotis, centered with a white orchid, and a shower of herbaceous stephanotis.

Mrs. C. Arthur Miller, the bride's matron of honor, was gown in aqua chiffon styled with a V neckline and very full skirt, accented at the waistline by a sash of the same material. Fashioning of the same material. Fashioning of the same material. (See McCURRY, Page 4)

Full Program Is Arranged. Large Crowd Anticipated

There is lots of excitement in the air as everyone is anticipating Benefit Day, being sponsored by the women of Oakland Hills Country Club on Friday, July 28. All proceeds with the exception of the actual cost of the luncheon will be donated to the American Red Cross and reservations are pouring in.

A full day's program has been arranged starting with a golf tournament at 8:30 a. m., followed by luncheon and bridge. A most unusual and interesting program has been arranged during the afternoon including a fashion show and other special features. All prizes of which there are scads, have been donated to the American Red Cross.
