GIRL SCOUTS

By MARGARET BARNEY

Look, girls, did you know that Juliette Low has her name on a big steamship, now? Yes, sir, our Juliette Low for whose friendship funds we gave our money at the big rally at Barum this spring was chosen as the one hundred and first famous American woman to give her name to a Liberty ship.

It was christened in Savannah, Georgia. Juliette Low's home city, and will be used by the Navy to carry its burden of service and good will to all parts of the world. Girl Scouts turned out en masse for the launching and the principle speakers were high officers in Scouting.

A niece of Miss Low's, christened the ship. Thus, Juliette Low takes her place among the leading women of all ages, whose names are on other Liberty ships. Some of these are Vera Barton, Amelia Earhart and Poshontas.

Attention, Girl Scouts of Mrs. Patten's Garden Group: If you wish to have your garden inspected some time in August, phone Mary Lou Gregory, Birmingham, 1128. There will be a picnic on August 23rd at Mrs. Patten's house. Do not forget to bring the weeds out of your garden, for inspection.
