

Responsibility to War Veterans Up For Future Study

The discussion group started by the League of Women Voters and the "Baldwin" Library will meet Tuesday evening, June 20, at 8 o'clock at the library to discuss "The Responsibility of the Government and the People to Returned Veterans."

This subject is considered important to all and one which will have to be solved very soon.

Members of the discussion group include Mrs. W. M. Brown, Mrs. Russell Barnes, Miss Adeline Cook, Mrs. Geo. B. Finch, Miss Dorothy French, Mrs. Wallace Frost, Mrs. F. G. Garrison, Mrs. J. N. Hildjisky, Mrs. R. W. Heiser, Mrs. Christy Jones, Mrs. Howard Liverance, Mrs. A. J. Looftbourrow, Mrs. A. D. McLary, Mrs. Phillip Pritz, Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, Mrs. Harlan Rowe, Mrs. Graham Shinnick, and Mrs. Ralph Yonker.

They met for the first time several months ago to learn the technicalities of serving as moderator. Their discussions have proved so stimulating that they are being continued.

Inasmuch as the June 20th meeting covers a subject in which men are vitally concerned, husbands are being invited to participate. Mrs. Quinn will serve as moderator.

IT'S PATRIOTIC THESE DAYS TO CONSERVE GAS

So that War Plants who are Cooking their Gas will have All of this Vital Fuel they need!

Today Gas is on the front production line helping to make guns, tanks, planes and ammunition. Shells alone require a number of heat processing operations in their manufacture and they are "cooked" with the same fuel you use in your home for cooking. GAS IS AN IMPORTANT WAR FUEL. DO NOT WASTE IT IN YOUR HOME! Remember, when you save gas you keep war plants humming for Victory.

Many of the improvements in design and efficiency of tomorrow's Gas home appliances will be the direct results of the research and development which have taken place during these trying times.

Modern Gas service after the war will make work easier, your home more cheerful, and life more enjoyable.
