THE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE OFFICE

As President of the Senate, the Lieutenant Governor should possess the ability to cooperate fully with the members of the Senate. He is also a member of the State Administrative Board which has as general supervision over all state business. This requires a knowledge of government and its procedures.

In the event of a vacancy, this man becomes Governor. Such a man should be a capable administrator. His long experience qualifies Vernon J. Brown as the candidate of the Republican Party for Lieutenant Governor.

any Methodist church in Detroit. His assignment to the city field was announced Monday at the annual conference held at Saginaw. He will move to his new field within a few days.

Sent to Birmingham to take his place is the Rev. Arnold F. Runkel of Marquette, who has served pastorates at Rockville and Caro. Mr. Runkel was in the German Conference which merged with the Detroit Conference about ten years ago. He has been prominent as a leader in athletics. Right now, however, he is not taking on any foot races for he is on crutches, having broken a bone in an ankle recently.

Mr. Becker came to Birmingham from Calvary church in Detroit. He has been connected in the Annual Conference with the Board of Ministerial Training. This board has to do with the intellectual qualifications of young men coming into the ministry. Becker was on the board 21 years, during that time was chairman the last twelve years; for five years was also Dean of the Graduate School and Under-graduate School, held in the spring, first at Albion, now at Lansing.

He resigned this year from the board and received a vote of thanks from the Conference for the service rendered.
