

Helen Shaver Weds James McNitt At Evening Rites

Christ Church, Cranbrook, was the scene of a lovely ceremony Saturday evening when Helen Louise Shaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaver, became the bride of James David McNitt, son of Robert J. McNitt, of Perth Amboy, N. J. The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan officiated before an altar decorated with white tulle and flowers.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father wearing a gown of candlelight satin, fashioned along princess lines with a panel front and back and shirring on each side. The sweetheart neckline was beautifully embroidered with seed pearls and the long sleeves came to a point on her wrists. On her head she wore a tiara decorated with seed pearls, a short face veil, and a long veil which fell from the back of her tiara. Her arm bouquet was of pale pink roses.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Paul R. Van Thiel, and the maid of honor, Jean Baum, of Princeton, N. J., were gowned alike in pale peach mousseline de soie. They wore tiaras of cavaliere roses and their bouquets of roses and blue delphinium were accented by blue ribbons. The bridesmaids, Mary Elizabeth Davis, of Dallas, Tex., and Mary Sue Bee, of Bloomfield Hills, wore dresses similar to the honor attendants. Their tiaras and bouquets were blue delphinium. The flower girls, Nancy Walter, and Barbara Jo Best were dressed in the same color and material as the bridesmaids. Clusters of flowers were in their curls and they carried miniature bouquets.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Shaver, chose a long gown of tea rose silk crepe, a tiny rose trimmed hat with a black velvet bow, long black gloves, and a corsage of tea roses.

The bridegroom's father was his best man while his brother, Capt. Edward McNitt, from Fort Sill, Okla., High School, of Royal, Okla., Mass., and Capt. Paul R. Van Thiel, seated the guests.

The reception was held at the

Mrs. James D. McNitt, home of the bride's parents on Warren Court following the ceremony. When Mr. and Mrs. McNitt left on their wedding trip, she was wearing a coral colored suit with an ice blue blouse and black accessories. Upon their return they will live in Fayetteville, N. Y.

Mary Hibbard Sets July 7 for Marriage

Mary Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Hibbard, of Adams park, has set July 7 as the date for her marriage to John Poppen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Poppen, of Holland.

The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan will officiate at the afternoon ceremony which will be read at Christ Church Cranbrook. Following the wedding they will be a dinner for the immediate families and the bridal party at Devon Gables.

Mary has asked a fellow student of the Cadet Nurse Corps, Wanda Grizina, to be her only attendant.

Ruth Mary Potter Tells Troth At Tea In Home Tuesday

Greeting the guests invited to a tea Tuesday at the home of the E. G. Potters, of Northlawn drive, was tiny Diane Donaldson, who presented everyone with a dainty rosette nosegay. Hand-painted hearts bearing the names "Harry" and "Abbe" were attached to the nosegays with pink satin ribbon.

Harriet, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of heavy ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline and long train. The long sleeves tapered to points on her wrists. She wore a face veil of Russian and a long veil fell from the back of her dress. Gardenias and white delphinium formed her bride bouquet.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Katherine. Her dress was white with a lace bodice and bouffant marquisette skirt. On her head she wore a cluster of sweet peas accented with chattruse ribbons.

Harriet Williams Married At Cranbrook Wednesday

Before an altar decorated with white delphinium, larkspur, and carnations and lighted by candle-labry, Harriet Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Perry Williams, of Strawberry Hill, Bloomfield Hills, and Edwin Phillip Huff Maxwell, son of Mrs. Louise Maxwell, of Pine Lake, spoke their marriage vows to the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Ensign Maxwell's best man, while Norman and Harry Martin Russell Dawson, and Lawrence Williams, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Following the reception at the pleasant Open Hunt, Eastman and Mrs. Maxwell left for Florida where he is to report.

Newly-weds Leave For Lake Cruise

Christ Church Cranbrook, Saturday, was the scene of the 4 o'clock wedding of Esther Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoy, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Brewer, to Thomas McDonald McCree, USNR, son of Herbert J. McCree, of Detroit, and Mrs. Charles H. Cadigan, officiated before an altar decorated with white stock and delphinium and candelabra.

The bride, who has made her home with the Hoyers for several years, was given in marriage by Mr. Hoy. She wore a white satin gown with white stock and delphinium, with a tight bodice, a heart shaped neckline and court train. The pointe veil, hung from a tiny cap which was caught on the side with orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of delphinium, and gardenias.

Mrs. Harry D. Hoy, who was the matron of honor, wore a long summer gown of floral print. Corresponding flowers were worn in her hair and formed her bouquet. The bridesmaid, Lola Ellsworth, of Tempe, Ariz., the maid of honor, wore a similar dress and flower arrangements.

Patricia and Deborah Hoy, the junior bridesmaid and flower girl, were dressed alike in white pin-flores. They carried and wore in their hair white mistletoe. Howard E. Yule was the best man and the ushers were William S. Owen, USNR, and Robert Griffin.

Following the wedding ceremony the Hoyers entertained at a reception in their home, on Cranbrook road. When Mr. and Mrs. McCree left for a lake cruise, Mrs. McCree was wearing a navy blue linen suit with white accents, navy hat and white accessories. They will make their home on Seward avenue, Detroit.
