Clara Phelps Honored at Breakfast Saturday Preceding Graduation

Mrs. C. A. Phelps, of Fairfax road, entertained at a breakfast Saturday morning at the Birmingham Country Club in honor of her daughter, Clara, who was graduated from Marygrove College yesterday afternoon.

Among Marygrove classmates of Miss Phelps who attended the breakfast were Gene Frey and Kathleen Cook, Cleveland; Jean Golden, Marie Baron, and Jeanne

Argentina Woman To Speak Friday At Mrs. Shain's

Mrs. Charles Shain, 813 Pierce, will have the privilege of presenting to members of the International Relations class and those interested in the Argentine, Miss Maria Rosa Oliver, of Buenos Aires, who will lecture at Mrs. Shain's home, beginning promptly at 4 o'clock Friday, June 9.

Miss Oliver is senior consultant on Argentine affairs in the office of the co-ordinator of Inter-American Affairs, Washington, D. C. She is being sent by Nelson Rockefeller to participate in the Claremont College's summer institute on South America.

A member of the staff of the Buenos Aires "La Nacion," she is also a contributor to "Sur" magazine. Miss Oliver has had intimate contact in political, social and cultural life of Argentina.

Her visit to Birmingham will be appreciated because this is the only talk she is giving in this area. Crippled from infantile paralysis, Miss Oliver travels in a wheel chair. She speaks fluent English and has lectured with much success in the East.

This will be the regular monthly meeting of the International Relations class. Light refreshments will be served following Miss Oliver's talk.

Oakland Hills To Have Luncheon

Oakland Hills Country Club will be the scene of a bridge luncheon Wednesday, June 14, and already reservations are pouring in for the reserved amount of tables.

Mrs. M. Burgess is chairman of the luncheon and other hostesses are Mrs. John C. Calhoun, Mrs. William A. Falls, Mrs. Charles N. Huff, Mrs. Fred T. Keller, Mrs. Richard Mead, Mrs. Arthur C. Oils, Mrs. George E. Quigley, Mrs. John A. Reid, Mrs. C. W. Macker and Mrs. Wayne W. Wilson.

Rosalind Randall Will Honor Guest at Dinner

Rosalind Randall, who recently graduated from Stratford Junior College, Danville, Va., will honor her house guest, Carroll Liddy, of Grosse Pointe, at dinner and bridge party in her home, on Shirley drive, Saturday night.

Rosalind's guests will be Anne Savage, Mrs. William Conway, Patty Burke, of Detroit, Joyce Webster, Nancy Kim, and Marge Walton.

Methodist Women to Meet for Final Time

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will hold its last meeting until October—Wednesday, June 14, at one o'clock in the church.

There will be special music and the devotions will be led by Mrs. Victor Peck. Mr. Marshall M. Morgan will review Roi Otley's book, "New World a-Comin'."

The Susanna group will serve dessert.

Sherwood School to Hold Graduation in Amphitheatre

There will be a great-bustle and stic around Sherwood school Friday, June 9, that being Parents' Day at the Bloomfield Hills boarding school. This is the day when fathers and mothers come to the country to collect their young ones and take them home for the summer, and the day of the graduation exercises for Sherwood's young graduates.

The ceremony, which is to be in the outdoor amphitheatre at 1:30 p. m., will be brief and simple, and will be followed by hot-weather refreshments. Also keyed to last day of school festivities will be the short program conducted by the teachers: Mrs. Howard Chapel, Mrs. Mae Leouyer and Mrs. Adele Hersh, all of Birmingham.

Cute, and brief, will be the "graduation" for the very young of the nursery school, among whom will be: Saddy Ellwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ellwood, of Hupp Creek road; Stephen Pew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Pew, of Saffold road, and Susan Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Spicer, of Sherwood School.

Because the staff and helpers of Sherwood are going to devote much of the summer to redecorating and "fixing up" the great house and the 60-acre estate there will be no day camps this summer. Among the resident children who will attend will be: Lee Boylan, son of Lee Boylan, of Northlawn road.

Two Scholarships to U. of M. Awarded

Donis Murray and Robert Goldmann, of Baldwin high school, will receive a University of Michigan scholarship for the coming year from the University of Michigan.

This honor is open annually to graduates of the high school here who meet the requirements set up for the scholarship. The award pays all university fees for the winner's first year in Ann Arbor and will be renewed for the other three years if performance warrants.

The award is made on the basis of high scholastic record, proved leadership, good citizenship, and evident ability to make use of the opportunities offered by the university.

The announcement of these selections was made by Dean C. S. Yoakum, vice-president of the university in charge of education investigations, and Clark Tibbitts, director of the Institute for Human Adjustment.

Donis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Murray, 388 Tibbury road, Bloomfield Village, and Robert is the son of the F. L. Goldmans, of Franklin.

Jane Hyde Engaged To Robt. Pinckney

Mr. and Mrs. Eric F. Hyde announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Carolyn, to Robert Burroughs Pinckney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Pinckney, of Seneca Falls, N. Y.

Jane was graduated from Baldwin high school and attended Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, and the University of Michigan. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Both attended the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Sigma.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Because so many people contribute their time, office space and other assistance, War Bond sales come to the government is only one cent for every thirty-three dollars raised.

Presbyterian Young People's Outing to Be Held at Orchard Lake

The senior high school young people of the Presbyterian church will close their regular activities for the summer with an outing at the Orchard Lake Country Club this coming Friday.

During the year this group has been active under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. John Slater. The year's program has included discussions on Sunday evening at the church and social events once a month. In January there was a youth banquet and special program held in celebration of National Youth Week.

The Sunday evening discussions have been in charge of the young people and have been led by four teams in rotation. The leaders of these teams are: Team 1, Eunice Engel; Team 2, Dale Miller; Team 3, Martha Penfield; Team 4, Don Price. Every fifth Sunday a special speaker has been secured for the program.

The four teams also participated in an attendance contest. Team 1 won the contest and will be the guests of the other three teams at the party at Orchard Lake on Friday.

The officers of this youth group are: president, Sybil Finch; vice-president, Peggy Jensen; secretary, Mercedes Engel; treasurer, Bob Gove. Officers for the coming year will be elected at the party Friday.

Junior League Meets at Orchard Lake C.C.

Mrs. Carlton Higbie presided at the fifth meeting of the season for the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills members of the Detroit Junior League, held Tuesday at the Orchard Lake Country Club.

Honor guests for the afternoon luncheon were the provisional members for 1944, and they included Barbara Booth, Jean and Nancy Day, Kathrine Williams, Mrs. Donald W. Wilson, Mrs. Charles Reuter and Anne Nicolls.

Other guests were Mrs. Frances Burke, retiring president, and Miss Ethel Flinn, the new president of the Detroit Junior League.

Movie "E" Bonds—the number ones for the small investors—were sold in the Fourth War Loan drive before—$9,000,000 individual transactions that brought in $8,187,000,000.

Senior Girls Feted at 'Coketail' Party

Wednesday afternoon the nine-seventeen girls of the Baldwin High school graduating class were given a "Coketail" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hayes on Pilgrim road.

Peggy Hayes and Charlotte Smith were co-hostesses for the group for the affair, honoring the June graduates.

Paddy Thompson and Pat Stanford presided at the Coketail party while Donna Kramer took her place behind the punch bowl.

Also invited guests were the four advisers of the senior class, Miss Ruth Hill, Miss Bertin Robinson, Miss Luella Dewar, and Miss Gena Hansen.

Class colors and banners of former flowers were used for decorations throughout the home.

GIRL SCOUTS

By MARGARET BARNEY
Girl Scouts and citizens of Birmingham alike had lots of fun over the Penny Drive conducted on the down-town sidewalks on Saturday. They'll do plenty with the money donated. A big "thank-you" for the generosity, folks!

Business slowed down a bit in the Penny Drive late Saturday afternoon in front of Kroger's so the girls decided to help carry out groceries. The extra cash accruing to the Penny Drive was amazing!

Day camp registration will be taken June 22 at 10 a. m. in the Girl Scout room at the Community House. Mrs. Ewald E. Shaffer will take care of the Brownies and Mrs. Edward C. Faulkner, of the Intermediates. Dates for camp instruction are July 2 to 13, inclusive, under the direction of Mrs. Edward L. Ruslander; for Brownies, July 12-20, directed by Mrs. Frank D. Webb.

Troop 4 of Quanton

Thursday evening several girls assisted Community Life Second Class Activities by bringing flowers from home and arranging them for center pieces on the table at the Community House.

Tuesday the girls had their hike and picnic at Springdale Park. A few girls blazed a trail and the others followed. Mrs. Huntington had charge of arrangements.

On June 9 at the Scout Cabin Troop 4 will hold its Court of Awards at 10 a. m. The girls receiving awards, and their mothers will be present.
