

Dance Club to Have Guest Night Mar. 4

The Dance Club, which meets several times during the winter season under the direction of Dorothy Seiffert, will meet Saturday night at the Community House. This dance will be different in the respect that each couple belonging to the club is to bring another couple as their guests.

As is always true of these gatherings, many parties have been planned to precede the dance and several breakfasts will follow. Among those who will be hosts at cocktails that evening are the Robert S. Davison, F. G. Garrison, George S. Dixons and the Donald M. Chaffee. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Oldberg will be hosts at a dinner party and the William Morgans are entertaining at a breakfast following the dance.

Simmer your Swiss steak, or any other tough cuts of meat, to make it tender, juicy and tasty. After browning meat, simmer in water just below boiling, about 185 degrees Fahrenheit. It's a slow, gentle process that brings out the best in flavor and gives you a rich gravy for a topping.

Cibotium Ferns Bank Altar For Wood-Hogg Rites

Cibotium ferns and tall taper in cathedral candelabra were arranged in the church and at the altar of the First Presbyterian church Monday evening for the marriage of Suzanne Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Wood, of Wimpleton road, to Pfc. Paul Diller Hogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Paul Hogg, of Beverly road. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride gown was ivory satin, fashioned with tight basque and a sweetheart neckline. The full skirt fell in a short train and the long light sleeves tapered to tiny points at the wrists. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a Dutch cap of Albon lace and she carried a loosely arranged bouquet of gardenias.

The bride's only attendant, Mrs. John C. Washburn, of Evanston, Ill., was crowned in ice blue satin styled along the same lines as the bride's with bracelet length sleeves. She wore a tiny blue hat of matching net with clusters of pink callenias arranged on each side. She carried a colonial bouquet of shaded pink callenias.

Pfc. Warren H. Jessop, of Ann Arbor, acted as best man. Pfc. William E. Brown, Jr., of Benton Harbor, Pfc. Blaine B. Johnson, of Jackson, and Pfc. H. Gordon McDaniel, of Salt Lake City, acted as the guests.

Mrs. Wood wore a floor length dress of coral crepe with a matching net hat. Her flowers were white violets. Mrs. Hogg chose a floor length dress of aqua crepe and with this she wore white gardenias in her hair.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the church ceremony.

When the newlyweds left for a short wedding trip Mrs. Hogg wore a brown wool dress suit with a light blue felt hat. Her accessories were brown. They both return to school at Ann Arbor, where they have an apartment, next week.

GIRL SCOUT ANNIVERSARY WEEK

will be observed from
MARCH 12th to MARCH 18th

THE GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

Every person, young or old, who belongs to the Girl Scout organization believes, because she has accepted it of her own free will, in the ideals of the Girl Scout promise. The wording varies a little in different countries and in different languages, but the meaning is always the same. The Girl Scouts in the United States make this Promise:

- On my honor, I will try:
- To do my duty to God and my country.
- To help other people at all times.
- To obey the Girl Scout Laws.

THE GIRL SCOUT LAWS

- 1—A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted.
- 2—A Girl Scout is loyal.
- 3—A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others.
- 4—A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout.
- 5—A Girl Scout is courteous.
- 6—A Girl Scout is a friend to animals.
- 7—A Girl Scout obeys orders.
- 8—A Girl Scout is cheerful.
- 9—A Girl Scout is thrifty.
- 10—A Girl Scout is clean in thought, word and deed.
