

Service Men Honored At A. W. Golling Home

Pvt. Bill Golling, who is home on a furlough from Camp Lee, Va., was host at a stag dinner party at the home of his parents, on Glenary road, last Saturday night.

Dorothy Prussing Tells Engagement To Erwin Coveney

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Prussing, of Cranbrook road, of the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, of the Waves, to Midshipman Erwin L. Coveney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin F. Coveney, of Westwood drive.

Dorothy Prussing

Dorothy, who is a recruiting specialist, stationed in St. Louis, Mo., recently spent a week end at Annapolis, Md., visiting Erwin, who is in training there. He has completed the V-12 Navy program at the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Chi Psi. No immediate plans have been made for the wedding.

On Tuesday, March 23 the Saxon Guild will sponsor a luncheon at Kene Auditorium, Detroit at 12:30 p. m. An afternoon of various forms of activities has been planned by the committee in charge. Mrs. Harold Schutte is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Oederman, Mrs. L. C. Winslow, Mrs. Thomas Rossen and Mrs. Clarence Chapman. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Laurence Heintz at Royal Oak—Lm. 2-2049.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

BILL KENT, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kent, 445 Azlinton drive, and ROBERT SAUNDERS, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Saunders, Orchard Ridge road, are home from Shattuck school for their spring vacation. They will return to school on the 28th.

W/O JAMES R. PACKARD spent his furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Packard, New Orleans, La.

ENSIGN JAMES S. O'ROURKE, JR., is here on a brief leave from his station at New Orleans, La.

MRS. E. E. BROWN, JR., who has been staying with her parents, the E. F. Painters, of Watkins street, has left to join her husband, Lt. Brown, at Goldsboro, N. C.

THE WILLIAM SPIEGELS, of Chesterfield road, entertained at an open house last Thursday night, honoring their son, A/S Tom Spiegel, who has just completed his boot training at Great Lakes, Ill. On Friday night Tom was host at a stag party. The Spiegels are leaving the end of the month to visit another son, A/S Bill Spiegel, who is taking his pre-flight training for the Air Corps at Spring Hill, Ala.

MRS. E. F. PAINTER, of Watkins street, visited her son and daughter-in-law, the R. O. Painters, of Milford, last week.

SALLY GENUNG, of Fairfax road, had as her week end guest, Margaret Ann Simms, of Greenville, Mich. The girls are Sophomores at Michigan State College and are here for their spring vacation.

NATALIE SEAHOLM, of Kenneaw road, is expected home from Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Mass., for her spring vacation Saturday.

VIRGINIA KALBFUS, of Wadlington road, is spending her spring vacation from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kalbfus.

ELEANOR RUBECK and BERNICE KEEGAN are visiting Eleanor's sister, Mrs. Floyd Spurlock, of Avon, Fla.

SALLY PETERSON, of Highland Park, spent last week end as the guest of Virginia Fellows. They are shortly to return to Michigan State College.

LT. AND MRS. H. H. HOLCOMBE are the guests of Lt. Holcombe's sister and brother-in-law, the Ensigns Du Bois of Charing Cross road. The Holcombes are visiting here from Camp Lee, Va.

ENSIGN AND MRS. S. E. DU BOIS spent last week with Ensign Du Bois' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Hemphill, of Mayfair Lane. They have left for the west coast, where Ensign Du Bois will be on sea duty. His brother, Lt. Richard P. Du Bois AAF, arrived on Monday to be the Hemphill's guest for a short time. He has just returned from duty in India and China. Mrs. Du Bois has been making her home with the Hemphills during her husband's absence.

MRS. J. B. TAYLOR, of Madison avenue, is visiting her daughter, Joan and Mary, who will be on their spring vacation from Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Mass., next week at Quaker Hill, Conn.

MRS. E. G. WASEY, who has been residing in Springfield, Mo., for the past two months, has returned to Birmingham and is making her home at 519 Harmon street.

MR. and MRS. DONALD H. KRUSHAK, of East Lansing, will spend this week end with Mrs. Krushak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tighe, of Hanna Street.

BETTY CORVELL is home from Michigan State College visiting her parents, the Ralph Coryells, of Fawcett street.

CADET JAMES GAULT, R. A. F., who is stationed at the N.A.S. A.S. Grosse Ile, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford for several days.

MRS. WALTER A. ANDERSON, of Lake Park drive, left for New York City, where she will visit her daughter, Faye, who is studying with Martha Graham, School of Dancing.

MR. and MRS. ALBERT E. SHIRA, of Davis street, celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary Sunday, March 19. Their dinner guests were the Ralph Garlands, of Melby; the Clarence Follmans, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Oswald and daughter, Beverly, and Liza Reed.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM A. DA LEE, of Pilgrim road, entertained Sunday afternoon in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. Alfred S. Thomas, who were married Wednesday, March 15.

MRS. GEORGE M. ROUNDS, of North Woodward avenue, left Wednesday to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. George Rounds, Jr., who are at Norfolk, Va. Helen Rounds arrived home from Olivet College, where she is a junior, Wednesday.

MR. and MRS. JAMES DANT, of Willow Lane, have returned after spending two months at Sea Crest Manor, Hollywood, Fla.

The Present Day Club celebrated its 20th anniversary at a dinner at the home of Mrs. Victor Ogden, on Smith street, Tuesday night. The party was attended by 25 guests and members.

The table was attractively decorated in green and white, which are the club colors, and a large birthday cake was also decorated in green and white. The annual ceremony of the lighting of the birthday candles took place, with each past president giving an interesting resume of her service as president.

Mrs. Victor Ogden was the first to light her two candles, representing two years' service. Others that followed the candle lighting were Mrs. Michael Miller, now of Detroit; Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. John Gill, Mrs. Horace B. Barrett, Mrs. Floyd Crouse and Mrs. Melvin Uppiger.

Following the dinner several letters from charter members who live out of town were read. Mrs. James Dantrell, a former member, now living in Royal Oak, gave an interesting reading.

Mrs. Melvin Uppiger, president, was in charge of arrange ments, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Bradswood, Mrs. William Sugdon, Mrs. Walter Tate and Mrs. Ray Dalton.

Kathryn Heilman Married Before Altar of Lilies

Kathryn Mary Heilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Heilman, of Cranbrook road, and her parents arrived home from

Mrs. Charles Robert Weir

at Lauderdale, Fla., on March 11 just in time to complete hurried plans for her wedding to Ensign Charles Robert Weir, son of Mrs. Marguerite Mayne, of Kachham boulevard, which took place the evening of Friday, March 17.

The couple spoke their vows in the chancel at Christ Church Cranbrook at 7 o'clock witnessed by the families and a few close friends. The Rev. Charles H. Cadden read the service before an altar banked with white lilies, stock and tulips.

The bride, given in her marriage by her father, chose a two-piece street length dress of blue crepe. She wore a tiny white cabbie with day-trim and a shoulder bouquet of white daisies. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. R. W. Dent, who chose a similar two-piece dress of pink faille with a matching hat and a corsage of white violets.

Following the service there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Heilman received her guests wearing a dress of soft green wool with a matching hat. Her corsage was of yellow shattered carnations.

The newlyweds left for New York where Ensign Weir is stationed at the New York Naval Yard.

HOME NURSING COURSE The Cross Home Nursing course will be begun Tuesday, March 28, at Baldwin high school. The course will run for 12 weeks, meeting each Tuesday from 1 to 3 p. m. For further information call Mrs. T. W. Eustis, 2458 or Mrs. Ross Mack, 2971.

Like fish or fowl, RABBIT has a good store of protein. Broil or fry the younger ones, cook the older ones longer.

Miss Martin Plans June 24th Wedding

An announcement of the approaching marriage of Beulah Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Martin, of Beaufort road, was made known at a dinner Sunday.

They love birds bearing scrolls, at the corner of the place cards, told the date as June 24, at which time she will become the wife of Medical Cadet Clifford Keeler, foster son of Foster Chase, of Jackson.

Among the invited were Marion Porter, Mary Jane Woodly, Vesta Martin, Betty Hayes, Virginia Schnell, Helen Arley, Thelma Paulson, Leona Vadness, Betty Fatchett, Mrs. William Keschly, Mrs. Howard Campelle, Blanche Chase and Mrs. Andrew Neigher.

Both are graduates of Michigan State Normal and Beulah also attended Illinois Wesleyan. At present she is teaching kindergarten at Belleville, Mich. Cadet Keeler was studying at Stanford University and is now stationed at Wayne University.

(Want Ads Will Do It)

MEN'S and WOMEN'S Suits . . . Coats Slacks Made to Measure

Alterations—Repairing Dry Cleaning & Pressing

Wm. L. Owen PHONE 374 205 E. MAPLE

The VALDORA TEA ROOM 255 NORTH WOODWARD WILL BE CLOSED TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY MARCH 28th AND 29th FOR REDECORATING We Will Be Open Again On Thursday, March 30th

Taste Sensations At Corning's EL PATIO Woodward Ave. at Coolidge Highway Genuine Italian SPAGHETTI 75¢ FISH FRY 65¢ Barbecued SPARERIBS 75¢ SUNDAY DINNERS $1.00 UP

Blouses Each of these spring styles is something to cherish—for wear with your suit and separate skirts. Each has an individual feature that will suggest dozens of occasions of usefulness! The products of America's most competent blouse designers and manufacturers—you'll want to add at least one to your "collection"! COLLECTORS ITEMS FOR SPRING & EASTER Whites & Colors . . . $1.95 to $5.95 Plaids, Checks and Dots F. J. MULHOLLAND CO. Member Retail Merchants Association

WORK CLOTHES For Factory, Farm and Garden . . . they FIGHT WASTE We made sure of the serviceable quality of these work clothes before we stocked them—to make sure they would neither waste your money or the fabrics and labor that went into their making. We're sure on every count, that they're durable, well fitting and good value—which you can buy with confidence! Striped Denim Work Cap . . . 35c Work Shirts . . . $1.25 up Cotton Work Socks . . . 25c up Work Gloves . . . 35c up Overalls and Jackets . . . $2.00 & $2.50 Heavy Drill Slacks . . . $2.69 up Striped Cotton Basques . . . $1.25 We Have A Good Assortment of Sport Shirts and Slacks MULHOLLAND'S MEN'S & BOYS' DEPARTMENTS

WAR FUND