Pick Double Cast For School Play Here March 30-31

By JEAN EDDY
This year's all-school play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," has enjoyed a great and long-lived popularity all over the country. Within the last three years, "Arsenic and Old Lace" has had three professional runs in Detroit, with Eric Von Stroheim, Walter Hampton, and Boris Karloff, respectively, taking the part of Jonathan. It began its run on Broadway January 10, 1941, and still draws a full house every night.

Give the boys first chance at Long Distance

It means a lot for a boy in the service to talk to his friends and family back home. Usually the best time he has to do that is in the evening.
How about giving him a break by not using Long Distance from 7 to 10 P. M. unless it is absolutely necessary?
