various amusements and entertainments. Both the Board and the school officials had, at first, expressed concern over just how the proposal would be worked out but members said after the night there was no doubt that they were now completely satisfied that the young folk were taking very good care of their new meeting place and the activities provided.

ties of various departments and found quite a group in the room while in the auditorium and other rooms there was lively dancing, and the cartoon being well patronized. In the Girl Scout room there were ping-pong tables in action and in the dining room there were bridge, cribbage, chess and other entertainment.

Birmingham Residents Urged to Send More Books to Men In The Service

Birmingham young men, battling the enemy on many war fronts in the present world strife need and want more good books to read during their rest periods from fighting death. Not only Birmingham young men, and young women, too, but boys from other areas are sending home the same plea.

bureaucrats' dishonest, or, in some cases, in fact, I know lots of them who aren't at all trying, in their variety of ways, to make democracy work through government.

Charles Lyle Sends German Bomb He Found In England

A German incendiary bomb dropped from an airplane "somewhere in England" was innocently disposed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lyle, Yorkshire road, in Birmingham last week by their son Sgt. Charles Lyle, who is stationed in the U. S. Air Force in England.

TWO CAR ACCIDENTS

Two car accidents, both with damage to the cars involved, but neither causing injury to occupants, were reported to police the past few days.

Robert Hayslip, 316 North Woodward, said he was driving south on Woodward and attempting to turn on his left hand when he swung over to the right of the street striking a parked car owned by Irene Weston, Pleasant Ridge.
