

Local Churches Expected to Join In "D" Day Plan

Churches of Birmingham are expected to complete plans at once to join in Governor Kelly's suggestion of observing "D" Day with prayer. Governor Kelly has called upon Michigan residents to kneel in prayer in their homes for churches on Invasion Day to enlighten God for success in battle and safety of Allied forces participating.

Already the First Methodist church has announced its "D" Day plans and others are expected to follow.

The text of Governor Kelly's proclamation follows:

"Since the first days of our participation in the war against the Nazis, the people of the United States have been anticipating with mixed emotions the day when 'D' Day would reach us that the invasion of Michigan could be in their homes or assemble in their churches to petition God for the end that we may unitedly place our faith in God.

"I urge the clergy of the State of Michigan to make necessary arrangements for receiving people in their respective churches on that day. I urge these things in the end that we may unitedly place our faith in God.

sons and the sons of those nations allied with us would invade Hitler's stronghold.

"We are aware that this will undoubtedly be one of the greatest military offensives in world history. At the same time, we are informed by our military leaders that invasion is necessary had that its success is closely related to the future freedom and happiness of the world.

"The invasion now appears imminent. It behooves us, therefore, to put the full and united force of our moral and spiritual support behind our sons, who will feel the full impact of the day when 'D' Day would reach us that the invasion of Michigan could be in their homes or assemble in their churches to petition God for the end that we may unitedly place our faith in God.

"I urge the clergy of the State of Michigan to make necessary arrangements for receiving people in their respective churches on that day. I urge these things in the end that we may unitedly place our faith in God.

"The members of our armed forces know the power and comfort of prayer; it is common practice for them before going into battle to appeal to Almighty God for strength and courage. We at home have gained comfort from our daily prayers for the safety and success of our relatives and friends in the battlefields.

"Now, therefore, I, Harry F. Kelly, Governor of Michigan, do hereby proclaim "D" Day—the Day of Prayer for the Invasion of Europe, Michigan—the day when 'D' Day would reach us that the invasion of Michigan could be in their homes or assemble in their churches to petition God for the end that we may unitedly place our faith in God.

Womens' Skill at Home

is Needed NOW for War

The skill you use every day at home—washing dishes, polishing silver, running the sewing machine or cake mixer, for example—can help win the war. That skill is needed now to help supply the increasing demands of global war for more invasion vehicles—more GMC "Ducks" and Trucks. There is a war job that you can do at GMC to hasten Victory. Phone Pontiac-6111, Line 451 and ask for an appointment today.

FOR "D" DAY PRAYERS
The First Methodist Church will be open for prayer on "Invasion Day." When it is known the invasion is on the church bell will be rung, and the building will be open until late in the evening. People may come for prayer and remain as long as they choose in the sanctuary. The invitation is extended to the public to make use of the church for prayer at that critical time.

Kingswood Summer Activities Made Known This Week

With vacation activities for young people curtailed by restricted transportation and crowded summer camps, the Kingswood Summer Institute in Bloomfield Hills has inaugurated a morning program of nature study combined with swimming and tennis. The institute is organized for those between the ages of approximately 12 to 15, both boys and girls. Classes will meet daily for two and one-half hours, Monday through Friday, from June 26 to Aug. 6.

The nature study classes will meet outdoors, take trips into the surrounding countryside to study plant and animal life in their natural habitats and to gather specimens for collections and notebooks. At certain intervals and on rainy days the students will work in the laboratory at projects and experiments planned by the instructor. There will be occasional trips farther afield, to the zoo or to spots where geological structures can be studied at first hand. This part of the combined course will last an hour and a half. Swimming instruction alternates with tennis will follow the nature study for one hour each morning. Classes in swimming will be held at the outdoor swimming pool where with individual instruction the non-swimmers may learn to swim and the others may perfect their strokes. The tennis courts on the Kingswood campus will be used for classes in tennis. Enrollment in the nature study course will be limited to a number which will insure the complete safety and good instruction of the children.

Girls of junior high school age and up to 18 may wish to take weaving as an artistic project and practical craft during the summer term. The techniques of weaving, color blending and artistic design are skillfully learned in the classes at the Summer Institute. Finished products are not only cherished by the students but are completely usable. These are handweaves of tapestries and material for suits and dresses.

FOR MOTHER'S DAY
Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church, Rev. Theo. Wurgasser, pastor in cooperation with 4,600 Lutheran Churches of the Synodical Conference, will celebrate Mother's Day by "Mothering" their mothers in the homes of their mothers. The congregation has sent out to the entire membership an interesting copy of their devotion and a list of the names of the mothers whom they will "mother." The church is taking care of the spiritual needs of mothers in the Synodical Conference. The local congregation will receive a special Mother's Day offering for this effort as its part in raising over $500,000 needed to carry on the work for the coming year.

History records that in ancient times the Israelites, wandering through the deserts fed on quail and this quail is so plentiful in Egypt that people cannot count the numbers captured during the season for hayf and large quantities are sold down and dried in the sun for future use.

MICHIGAN IS THE ARSENAL OF VITAL FOODS!

Sure, Michigan is only one state out of 48. Washington says we're the arsenal of Democracy, referring to Michigan-made airplanes and tanks and other munitions for our fighting yanks and allies.

But did you know that Michigan is an arsenal of vital foods? Michigan is FIRST in cherries, field beans, cantaloupes, carrots and cucumbers; SECOND in celery, strawberries, and peppermint; THIRD in onions, tomatoes, sugar beets, grapes and buckwheat; FOURTH in potatoes, beets and pears; FIFTH in apples, asparagus, and maple syrup.

Just to mention a few. An vital foodstuff Michigan rates among the ten leading states in the U.S. A. We're mighty proud of Michigan-grown vegetables, fruits, dairy products, poultry, meats, and sugarbeets.

When you buy MORE MICHIGAN food, grown on Michigan farms, you assure yourself of the best in taste, in quality, in vitamin richness. Moreover, you also help Uncle Sam by reducing the load on railroads and trucks. You lessen the amount of vital transportation used in shipping foodstuffs from farm to store.
