Miss Marie Deacon, of Detroit, was the week end guest of Reva Hillis, of Salsburg boulevard.
Mrs. Edwin R. Blake, of Ruckham boulevard, slipped on the steps of her rear porch and fell on Saturday. She suffered a sprained ankle which detained her from leaving a Boston, Mass., appointment. The family planned a two weeks vacation visiting "Mother Blake" and going on up into Maine. They were to have left Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Bigby, of San Diego boulevard, were hosts at a potluck supper for neighbors last week. The William Waddells were there as were the Walter J. Howards, Mr. and Mrs. Dean V. Weaver. Card games followed.
Mrs. E. L. Richardson, of Meadowbrook Way, chairman of Red Cross sewing, wishes it made known she will discontinue sewing classes until fall, due to the illness of Dr. Richardson.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS
Patricia J. Schooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Schooley, of 1020 Rivonock, will receive her bachelor of arts degree from Albion College at the commencement ceremonies on May 22 when Governor Harry F. Kelly will deliver the address to the graduates. Miss Schooley has been a member of the Delta Gamma national society at Albion; a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary music society; the Sociology Club; the Spanish Club; the Women's Athletic Association; and the Albion liberal arts club at Albion.

Rosalind Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clifton Randall, of Shirley drive, is graduating May 30 from Stanford Junior College, Danville, Va.
Cameron Biggers Wagner (Mrs. Hugh S.), daughter of Mr. Robert L. Biggers of Birmingham, Mich., will be a candidate for the bachelor of arts degree at Wheaton College on Sunday, May 28, when the commencement exercises will be held. Dr. Edgar Park, president, will deliver the address to the graduating class and will confer the degrees.
Mrs. Wagner attended the Birmingham high school before coming to Wheaton. She has been president of the College Government Association this past year. Her major is art.

Floyd Starr to Speak At Benefit-Bridge
Guests at the benefit bridge to be held Friday, May 26, at the Community House will have the privilege of hearing Floyd Starr give a resume of the work being done at the Starr Commemorative Press.
The importance of Mr. Starr's work is well known and appreciated by all. His accomplishments and the fine results achieved in holding the book of his boys were beautifully described in the tributes paid him recently, as told by Alex Weitzel of the Detroit Free Press.
To make cabbage soup with dumplings, use half water or water from cooked bacon rinds for the stock, and add a pound of shredded cabbage. Pop the dumplings in the pot when the soup is done and cook quickly for ten minutes.
