

Hospital Auxiliary In Annual Meeting

The November meeting of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Arthur W. Handren, Watkins Lake, Monday afternoon. All standing committees were re-elected as of last year.

Members voted to purchase an x-ray tent, a payroll machine, and 28 student lamps for the hospital. The president was authorized to raise a $500 war bond during the coming 6th War Loan drive.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be given for the children of the hospital clinic. The party will be at the hospital auditorium on Tuesday, Dec. 19, with Mrs. Everett Glasgow as chairman and Mrs. H. P. Gaultier and Byron Judd in charge of refreshments. There will be a Santa Claus, movies and refreshments. The meeting closed with a social tea at which Mrs. Peter Davidson presided. The next meeting will be held the second Monday of January.

Bloomfield Village P.T.A. Hears Talk By Miss Adeline Cooke

The Bloomfield Village P.T.A. at its meeting Tuesday evening heard a fine talk by Miss Adeline Cooke, librarian at Baldwin library. Miss Cooke was introduced by Mrs. William Lamon. There was a brief business session and then teachers conducted a display of books they use in teaching the pupils.

Closing came the social hour and refreshments in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. D. J. Bracken.

Jane Hyde Married At Late Afternoon Service Saturday

Before an altar decorated with cythium ferns, white chrysanthemums and tall tapers Jane Carolyn Hyde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Robert B. Pinckney

Eric F. Hyde, of Oakland avenue, became the bride of Robert Burroughs Pinckney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Pinckney, of Seneca Falls, N. Y. The 5 o'clock ceremony was held by Rev. Walter L. Forsyth in the St. James Episcopal church Saturday.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocade with a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The full circular skirt ended in a train. Her fine net veil, which was worn by a guest-suit, the late Mrs. Joseph Ridge at her wedding in England 80 years ago, fell from a tangle of red roses and Stephanotis. Jane Zimmerman of Milwaukee, Wis., was maid of honor and wore a frock of deep red velvet with an arrangement of white feather tips and bows in her hair. Her flowers were white sweet peas.

John F. Fox Jr., of Detroit was best man and Erwin Otis, Jr., of Dearborn and Walter Lashley of Detroit acted as groomsmen.

Following the service, a reception was held at the Hyde home. Mrs. Hyde received her guests wearing an orchid crepe gown and a purple velvet hat and Mrs. Pinckney wore a light blue with a matching hat. Both mothers wore orchids.

For traveling the bride wore a fuchsia wool suit trimmed with gray astrakhan, black hat and black accessories.

Garden Club Has Two Speakers At November Meeting

It was the privilege of the members to enjoy on Monday one of the most delightful of many inspiring meetings of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

This was planned by Mrs. Elmore Wollering, program chairman, who presented two speakers, Harry Wang and Mrs. Lloyd S. Linton, to the large representative group assembled at the Community House.

Mrs. William Howe and Mrs. Harry Cooley greeted members and guests at the door. Mrs. Edward W. Brehm's gift of warm hospitality made the luncheon both one of real pleasure, as she and her committee were such hosts to a small group.

Mrs. Robert D. Grindley, program committee, introduced the speakers, first of whom was Harry Wang, Korean horticulturist, who gave a charming, instructive talk on the "History of Diah Gardens."

Mrs. Linton gave a wide vision of the opportunity for the home-maker on Thanksgiving to create cherished memories that will bring great strength and courage through the years to come. She reminded the club that it is the little things that count, the extra touch, the friendly glance, the kind act. There were many lantern slides of foods displayed on the wall and bulletin board. Excellent menus suggested and delicious recipes given.

Women Voters To Visit Health Center

The November meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters will be held at the Community House Monday, Nov. 20, at 10:30 a. m.

The outstanding feature of the day will be a trip to the new Oakland County Health Center located on the Stevenson Highway, just off the Eleven Mile road, in Royal Oak.

Transportation has been arranged for and cars will be arranged for the Community House promptly at 10 o'clock to insure members arriving at home before school is out.

The program will open at 10:30 a. m. with an "experience meeting," followed by a discussion of League organizational affairs at 11:00.

By way of preparation for the afternoon's expedition, Mrs. Angus McVay and Mrs. Karl Ketchum will discuss certain aspects of public health in Oakland county. This discussion is scheduled for 12 o'clock and will be followed by coffee and sandwiches as usual.
