Evelyn Scheyer at the Piano To be Featured by Musicales

Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, chairman of the day, announces a program of unusual interest for the Birmingham Musicales meeting on Thursday, Nov. 9. The program, featuring Evelyn Scheyer, piano soloist, and a string trio and piano quartets, composed of Evelyn Scheyer, piano; Margaret R. Burton, violin; Mildred Thomas, viola; and Louise W. Bradley, violoncello, will be given in the Community House at 2 o'clock.

Evelyn Scheyer, who was born in Holland, started to play the piano at the age of 5. She studied in Amsterdam and later in New York and received honors in the state examination in theory and practice of music in 1925 in The Hague. She is well known in these parts for her performances.

Louise W. Bradley of Highland Park, studied cello in Chicago and in Ann Arbor where she also played with the University of Michigan symphony orchestra.

Mildred Thomas is the instructor of strings-instruments in the public schools of Ferndale and also directs the Lincoln high school orchestra. She received her master's degree in music education from the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Margaret E. Burton also teaches at Lincoln high school in Ferndale and received her music major from Oberlin.

Mrs. H. E. Edwards, chairman of the hostess committee, will be assisted by Mrs. E. W. Seeholm, Mrs. Webster Scheffler and Mrs. Earl Bartholomew.

The chairman of the tea is Mrs. Evelyn Scheyer.

Elmore Wollering, assisted by Mrs. Myron E. Snyder, Mrs. William Lloyd Kimo, Mrs. William H. Plate, Mrs. Elliott Kimey, Mrs. Norman Snyder, Mrs. James J. Kelly, Jr., Mrs. Draper Allen and Mrs. H. G. Hamilton.

100 Guests Attend Square Dance At Baldwin, Friday

About 100 parents of Baldwin high school students attended the old time square dance in the gym of the school last Friday evening. Between the square dances the new juke box, presented to the student body by Lee Jeslyn, president of the Board of Education, was played for modern dancing.

The refreshment table was most attractive in fall shades of mums and green candles. Cider and doughnuts were served by Mrs. Robert March, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Snyder and Mrs. A. E. King.

Mrs. Amos Gregory and Mrs. E. K. Hayes were co-chairmen of the affair, ably assisted by the students, home room teachers, and home room mothers, who sold tickets.

The annual open house when parents meet teachers will be Tuesday evening, Nov. 14.

Mrs. James C. Zeder Sponsoring Debutante Register for Hills

The next meeting of sponsors for the Debutante Register, a society publication devoted to the Detroit Club on Nov. 14, when the list of eligible Detroit girls will be made known.

The complete list of sponsors includes Mrs. Abram van Der Zee, chairman, Mrs. Richard Thornton Broadhead, Mrs. Theodore Wy Long, Mrs. Edward J. Jeffries, Jr., Mrs. Frederick Warren Richardson, Mrs. Burt L. Shurtley, Mrs. James Churchill Zeder and Jack L. Oliver. Mrs. Zeder is sponsor for the Bloomfield Hills area.

For the past several weeks the sponsors have been busy compiling a list of names of local girls whose qualifications will entitle them to be honored editorially and pictorially in this volume, which serves as a memory book by debutantes all over the United States and Canada.

The annual In-Gathering of the Birmingham-Bloomfield branch of the Needlework Guild of America held at the Community House on Oct. 25 proved most satisfactory to the president of the local group, Mrs. Lawrence C. Howe and the committee working with her.

The number of articles donated for the Community House Bazaar for those needing help locally and for the Red Cross Home Service (total 1,700) and the money contributions swelled the total membership well beyond that figure.

T. H. Wagners to Be Hosts Election Nite

Everyone is talking about the clever invitations Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wagner have issued to a number of their friends to attend an election party Tuesday evening. The invitations not only state a "party" platform but come complete with a ballot for R.S.V.P. purpose.

Among those who will gather at the Wagner home on Henrietta street for the evening are: Mr. and Mrs. William M. Barr, Mrs. Jack Schara, Capt. and Mrs. R. L. Reifer, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hite, Mrs. Ralph L. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aldrich and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gould.

May We Knock at Your Door Again?

We've missed calling there lately. The good service in Birmingham that we were so proud of couldn't be carried out when laundry work became a war casualty.

We do hope you missed us. We even dare hope that by now you appreciate us even more than you did when we came so faithfully.

Because now—thanks be—conditions have improved to the point where once again we may make our pick-up and delivery service to our patrons in Birmingham.
