HE'S FIGHTING FOR YOU ARE YOU HELPING HIM?

Perhaps you wonder why you are called upon to give more this year to your Community War Fund. Look about you and see the answer. No ruined buildings, no homeless children here. Yet across the street a gold star in the window, a soldier with an empty sleeve walking by. Your money helps care for wives, children, aged and needy relatives of boys still overseas fighting for you.

But dollars you give this year do much more; they are shared through the National War Fund with agencies bringing relief to civilian war victims of enemy tyranny, to furnish our men who brave warring seas, who fight far from home, with comfort and relaxation.

Part of your gift will help the United Seamen's Service furnish badly needed rest for men who have survived sinkings of war supply ships. Part will help War Prisoners' Aid assuage the deadly monotony Americans endure in enemy prison camps.

Part of your contribution will help USO carry entertainment to the men at the battle fronts. Some will be shared with the War Relief Agencies for rehabilitating civilian war victims.
