The Susanna Wesley group will meet at the home of Mrs. James Green, of Cedar drive. Mrs. Carl Binkle, of Pine street, will entertain the Hattie Evans group and Mrs. Victor Peck, of Maryland boulevard, the Mary Utter group.

The Kate Wagner group will meet at the home of Mrs. H. J. Havermale, of Filtrun road. The Wesleyan Service Guild will announce its place of meeting at a later date.

Catholic Women To Hold Day of Prayer

The annual Day of Recollection for the ladies will be held at the Shrine of the Little Flower church on Wednesday, Oct. 25. The devotions will open with an 8:30 Mass and celebration of the Holy Communion, closing with a two-thirty Benediction.

The Shrine Chapter, promoters of the day of special prayer and devotion, invite the women of this area to attend. The intention of the day is for the safe return of the boys in service.

Engaged

Marian Frances Vandall

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vandall, of Royal Oak, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian Frances, to A. C. Terry Lee Beal, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terry Beal, of Brown street.

Marian is a junior at Michigan State College and Terry was in engineering at Michigan State before enlisting in the Navy Air Corps. No immediate wedding plans are being made.

Moms Convention Held At Dearborn

The Birmingham MOMS Club was well represented at the state convention of the club held this week Tuesday and Wednesday at the Dearborn Inn. Mrs. H. T. Ellery, president of the Birmingham group, attended in that capacity and Mrs. S. H. Jensen and Mrs. Norman Lyle attended as delegates.

Also attending from here were Mrs. P. A. Vaughn, Mrs. S. K. Bird, Mrs. R. C. Hoofnagle, Mrs. George Steelman, Mrs. F. R. Woolfenden, Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Mrs. George Forester, Mrs. Harvey Rosso, and Mrs. Guy Jensen.

League of Women Voters Study Two Political Parties

At their Oct. 16 meeting at the Community House, members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters studied the histories and basic principles of the two major parties in talks by Mrs. Wilmer Roberts of Pleasant Ridge, Policy chairman of the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County, and Mrs. J. R. Quinn, of Birmingham, chairman of the Democratic Women's Division of Oakland County. Both speakers emphasized the importance of women aligning themselves with a party and taking an active part in politics, and interesting their children in the subject, in order to have government closer to the lives of the people as a whole.

During the morning session reports were given by committee chairmen on pre-election activities.

Mrs. W. M. Milligan reported for Miss Adeline Cooke, chairman of the speakers' bureau, whose plans are to train and provide speakers to give five minute talks to interested Birmingham groups, explaining why the League favors a "Yes" vote on the Wayne County Home Rule amendment. Proving the widespread interest in the subject, requests have already come in from fifteen organizations, and talks have been given by Mrs. E. L. Vonker, Mrs. James Duncanson, Mrs. G. S. Gove, Miss Cooke and Mr. Milligan.

Mrs. G. F. Osborn announced that several League members will be trained by Miss Irene Harley at the Municipal building on Oct. 28 to give instruction in the use of leaflets, explaining why the League favors a "Yes" vote on the Wayne County Home Rule amendment. Mrs. R. L. Vonker, Mrs. James Duncanson, Mrs. G. S. Gove, Miss Cooke and Mr. Milligan.

Reports were also given by Mrs. Peter Loomis, voting information chairman, Loufour row, information booths chairman; Mrs. John K. Ormond, candidates' bureau chairman; Mrs. Howard Liverance, Wayne County Home Rule chairman; and by Mrs. Arthur Gillespie and Miss Mary Anderson attending in the capacity of chaperones.

Friend, if you were a Navy V-12 trainee at the University of North Carolina, you might be learning math from Miss Helen McDevitt, above, the first woman to teach math at the Chapel Hill institution. Maybe she's what they mean when they talk about the beauty of a college education.
