TOWN HALL SPEAKER

H. Napier Moore, one of Canada's most brilliant speakers and journalists, will lecture at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre Wednesday morning, Nov. 1, at 11 o'clock. In his talk, the distinguished Canadian will answer some of the questions which Americans are seeking today: Where does Canada stand in relation to the British Empire—to the postwar world? What is the truth about the French Canadian? Just how is Canada governed? What is the significance of her political parties? Is Socialism a possibility?

GIRL SCOUTS

By LEE KASS

Tuesday, Oct. 31, is the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts. Girl Scout week will be observed from Sunday, Oct. 29, through the week.

The uniform exchange will be held in the Scout room on Saturday, Oct. 28, from 10 till 3 o'clock. All Scout equipment is included in the sale and exchange.

If you have news for the column and are unable to reach Mrs. Barney, call Mrs. Kass at 3515.

Troop No. 4 at Quarton entertained their mothers at a Halloween party on Tuesday, Oct. 24. There were songs and folk dances and the patrol working on the hostess badge was in charge of refreshments. Mrs. Ralph Scheel and Mrs. Melby Huntington are leaders.

Troop No. 7 at Pierce went on a hike to the rifle range and enjoyed a cook-out on Tuesday, Oct. 24. Mrs. S. E. Ross is leader and she was assisted by Mmes. Van Fleteren, Gilliam, Smith and McCullough.

Troop No. 15, Brownies of Pierce, held a picnic at Springdale Park cabin on Friday, Mrs. Charles Richards is leader and she was assisted by Mmes. Akins, Dalton, Calwell and Pettit.

Troop 10 holds its meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Community House. The new officers are: president, Shirley Reed; vice-president, Jule Hazard; secretary, Rickey Lou Viet; treasurer, Shirley Quinn.

There are two new leaders, Gertrude Rogerson and Helen Gillespie. A week-an Saturday the troop hiked out to the cabin for a "cook out." As entertainment for Halloween the troop has divided, and each half is preparing a skit to be presented to the other half. This will help toward gaining the troop dramatics badge. There are 24 girls in the troop.

The four Love Troops of Poppleton school have extended their appreciation to Birmingham Scouts and leaders who helped with their rummage sale Saturday, Oct. 14. They made $46.

Catholic Girl Scouts Will Go to Detroit On Sunday For Services

To mark the opening of National Girl Scout Week, Catholic Girl Scouts in Birmingham will attend their Second Annual Holy Hour in St. Cecilia church, Detroit, Sunday, Oct. 29, at 3 p.m. The theme will be a "just and lasting peace." All Girl Scouts observe this day in memory of Juliette Low, who founded the movement.

The Rev. Harold J. Markey, of the Catholic organization, will be the speaker and the Rev. John H. Wittstock, chaplain for Catholic Girl Scouts, will lead the prayers.

Mrs. J. J. Conroy, Mrs. J. R. Harrison and Mrs. Durward Rossman will accompany the Birmingham girls to Detroit. The arrangements are under the direction of the archdiocese committee on Girl Scouting, of which Mrs. H. Lincoln Kemp, of Detroit, is vice-chairman.

To dry-store beans, black-eyed peas and peppers, spread in a shallow pan and heat 20 minutes in the oven at 150 degress Fahrenheit, then store in fruit jars or cans with tight lids. This treatment insures against insect trouble.

OCTOBER . . . and the tang of Autumn fills the air . . .

COMES a new season with its own characteristic zest! Autumn. Poets are prone to speak of it as "the end," but in many ways it is the beginning. For after zestful days in the tangy air one's home takes on that cozy atmosphere so conducive to evenings of sociability—or perchance quiet reading.

Look around you! Would a new lamp in that far corner; a smart new wastebasket near the desk; the latest novels and non-fiction on the reading table—would these help shake away that jaded look of a by-gone season within your home? They would? Then come in, see our well-chosen collection of new and beautiful things for the home for the new season!
