"Therefore doth a living man who has that which is the fruit of his spirit: Let us search and try our own hearts, and see if we have these things, and if not, let us get them. Among the Bible citations is this passage: Ezekiel 37:2. But if we have had our hearts purified by the statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die." Corollary passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: (1927) "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin as the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out as unclean, but the belief in sin is punished as long as the belief lasts."
