

Village Players to Hold Opening Tea

The Village Players will formally usher in the fall season Sunday, Sept. 24, when they open the playhouse for afternoon tea.

Charlton Eden and Lane Bishop are making arrangements for the opening party and Mrs. Howard Green will take care of the musical entertainment.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE The Missionary Institute sponsored by the Detroit Council of Church Women will be held Wednesday, Sept. 20, in the auditorium of the Y.W.C.A.

Women in Service

Ruth Elaine Leaf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Leaf of Wing Lake road, has completed her boat training at Hunter College, N. Y.

Betty Sieger, of Bloomfield Hills, has completed her officer's training at Smith college and has been commissioned an ensign in the Waves.

Betty Marie Wheeler, Hospital Apprentice 1/C of the Waves, left Monday for Great Lakes, Ill., after having spent a 7-day delay enroute with her parents.

Susan D. Williams Speaks Her Vows to Wallace D. McRay

Mr. and Mrs. John Bidde Williams, of Greenwood street, announced the marriage of their daughter, Susan Dayton Williams, to Wallace Daniel McRay, pharmacist's mate third class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus D. McRay, of Winton drive.

Mrs. Wallace D. McRay

The wedding took place last Thursday, Sept. 7, in California, when Seaman McRay is stationed.

Susan, who recently enlisted in the Waves, will leave for boot training at Hunter college Wednesday and Wallace will return to Corona Naval Hospital, California, where he is an X-ray technician, following a brief leave spent here.

Josephine Facer Weds Geo. Cameron At St. James Church

Josephine Lucile Facer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Elwood Facer of Franklin Village, and George Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright Cameron, of Flint, spoke their marriage vows at a week Saturday afternoon in a ceremony read at St. James Episcopal church in Birmingham.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of heavy candlelight satin with a sweetheart neckline banded in seed pearls and long fitted sleeves ending in points over her hands.

Doris Facer, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Evelyn Brown, of Birmingham, bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of ice blue brocade made with sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves ending in points over her hands.

Sally Kelly, of Birmingham, flower girl, wore a light blue satin dress with sweetheart neckline and short puff sleeves.

Gordon Turnbull, of Flint, was best man and the ushers were Norman Facer, brother of the bride, and Joe Prieur, of Flint.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Facer chose a street length dress of teal blue crepe.

Mrs. Cameron wore a street length dress of chocolate brown crepe with small matching hat of green and brown.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Devon Gallies.

Upon their return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will reside in Birmingham.

Estelle Macauley Married at Lovely Candlelight Service

At candlelight service at 8:30 Friday evening at Christ Church Cathedral, P. O. 115, Macauley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard

The bride was a fan of white stephanotis centered with gardenias.

The bridesmaids, Diana Wadgell, Jeanne Day, Cynthia Pierce, and Jacques Flynn, of Pelham Manor, New York, wore similar gowns in delphinium blue with Russian coronets and mits of matching lace.

The best man was Lt. Warner L. Forsyth, Jr., and the ushers were Maj. Jack A. Cartwright, Capt. John Hacker, and Lt. Harold A. Price, of Stewart Field, Ft. Paul Avery, USNR, and Robert Kinner.

A reception at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club followed. Mrs. Farrell received her guests wearing a simple long gray satin dress and a gray velvet hat with lavender sequin trim.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, was gowned in a purple-colored tulle dress with a tulle hat in a lighter shade and deep purple orchids.

When Lt. and Mrs. Boden left for their wedding trip, Mrs. Boden wore an amerald green gaudinette suit and matching hat.

Fuller Mous—Charlette is a regular siren.

Anon Y. Mous—Yes, and just about as loud.

was a fan of white stephanotis centered with gardenias.

The bridesmaids, Diana Wadgell, Jeanne Day, Cynthia Pierce, and Jacques Flynn, of Pelham Manor, New York, wore similar gowns in delphinium blue with Russian coronets and mits of matching lace.

The best man was Lt. Warner L. Forsyth, Jr., and the ushers were Maj. Jack A. Cartwright, Capt. John Hacker, and Lt. Harold A. Price, of Stewart Field, Ft. Paul Avery, USNR, and Robert Kinner.

A reception at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club followed. Mrs. Farrell received her guests wearing a simple long gray satin dress and a gray velvet hat with lavender sequin trim.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, was gowned in a purple-colored tulle dress with a tulle hat in a lighter shade and deep purple orchids.

When Lt. and Mrs. Boden left for their wedding trip, Mrs. Boden wore an amerald green gaudinette suit and matching hat.

Fuller Mous—Charlette is a regular siren.

Anon Y. Mous—Yes, and just about as loud.

For Your Fall Planting. OPEN EVENINGS AND SUNDAYS. Evergreens - Fruit Trees. Fertilizer. Grass Seed - Perennials. 850 S. WOODWARD. HOWARD LOWE Mgr. E. W. OSBORNE. Phone 316

BIRTHS. Corporal and Mrs. Hugh McHugh announce the birth of a daughter, Patricia Ann, Aug. 7. Impossible. Captain—Let's play cards. First Mate—We can't. The sailors are lying on the decks.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

MR. and MRS. E. G. WEINHOLD, of Lincoln, Neb., are here visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Wehmer, of Kennesaw.

DR. and MRS. E. F. LEWIS, of Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, who have a summer place at Westwood on Little Traverse bay, were in Birmingham Tuesday.

STEPHANIE BUCKERIDGE returned Monday from a visit in Ontario. She and her parents, the J. O. Buckeridges, were accompanied by Arthur Baid of London, who will spend the week at the Buckeridge home at 307 Brookside.

MRS. EABLE DOBERTY has been visiting her parents, Mrs. George Porter, of Daines street, for the past three months. She has returned to Lubbock, Tex., to join her husband, Sgt. Doherty, who is stationed there with the Glider Corps.

MR. and MRS. HARRY STILLMAN, of Berwyn road, returned home Monday after spending several days vacation at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

MR. and MRS. A. T. COLLINS, of Buffalo, N. Y., and family, who are here visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Collins, of Glangary Circle, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday.

MR. and MRS. J. R. ADAMS, of Kennesaw road, with their daughter, Marilyn, and son, Charles, returned from New York Tuesday after having spent several days at a cocktail party for 17 followed by dinner at Devon Gallies, Sunday.

MRS. H. LEE NORTH, of Purdy street, is in Springfield, Ohio, for two weeks with her son, Roland E. North, and family, who have just moved to that city from Columbus where they resided for a number of years.

RICHARD ARMUBUST, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Armubast, of Beverly Hills, has just returned from a two-week stay in Harrisburgh, Pa.

DR. EDWARD GREENE and his wife, Dr. Katherine Greene, who is director of Sherwood school, spent Monday and Tuesday in Cleveland where they attended the National Convention of the American Psychological Association.

MRS. W. J. DIESCHNER and Dick, Betty, and Katherine, of Berwyn road, returned Friday from El Paso, Tex., where they spent the days visiting another son, Pvt. Bill Dueschner, who is stationed at Ft. Bliss.

Make Their Overseas Christmas A Happy One

MAIL THEIR GIFTS Between September 15 & October 15

- FOR HER: Stockings, Girdles, Garterbelts, Round Garters, Underwear, Gloves, Shower Slippers, Hairpins, Bobby Pins, Safety Pins, Towels & Wash Cloths, Sewing Kits, Manicure Kits, Scissors. FOR HIM: Khaki Sweaters, Navy Turtle Neck Sweaters, Army Shirts, Money Belts, Stationery Kits, Toilet Kits, Sewing Kits, Shoe Shine Kits, Zipper Duffle Bags, Billfolds, Photograph Cases, Shaving Kits, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, Cigarette Cases, P-Jackets.

f. j. MULHOLLAND CO.

BACK to SCHOOL Complete Outfit for the MEN OF TOMORROW

Let's get the young fellows started right, and on time, this year, for while you are busy helping win Victors, they are going to be busy learning how to carry on. We're ready to get them out from head to foot with a complete collection of Back to School clothes. Bring them in now.

Mulholland's BOYS' DEPARTMENT

