Legion Meeting Draws Interest of Increasing Number of Members

On Friday evening, Sept. 15, the ladies of the Kappa Gamma No. 1 of the American Legion held its first regular business meeting of the year.

The attendance was very gratifying. Some members who were not in the habit of attending regularly were present, realizing the work of the Legion needs the help of all members.

The membership committee reported plans for contacting regular soldiers of the Legion for membership and to offer assistance in any way that the Legion could help.

A program of entertainment was brought forward by the entertainment committee which will have few Friday nights of the winter without some Legion activity.

The service committee reported having been of assistance to two returned veterans and the Post provided funds for emergency relief on this line.

The theme of the evening was to provide inducements of both work and pleasure to those members who are not regularly attendant will make a greater effort to be there.

In all, a very satisfactory meeting took place and the winter work really got off to a good start.

VITA Means LIFE. Vitamins take their name from the Greek word, "VITA"—meaning life—because they are essential to life. A perfectly balanced diet would supply the normal vitamin requirements, but under present day eating habits and methods of food preparation, we do not get all the vitamins we need for vibrant good health. That is why so many people discover that they feel better... look better... when they supplement their diets with vitamins in highly concentrated form.
