Summer School of Gardening Has Harvest Show At Adams

Miss Marjorie Votey, science teacher at Adams school, was the inspiration of and adviser for the Summer School of Gardening which held the interest of over 40 children of that district through vacation days. The actual gardening was supervised by the following mothers: Mrs. Joseph Baldwin, Mrs. Louis A. Carrier, Mrs. Harold A. Wentworth, Mrs. Hugh D. Pahl, Mrs. R. S. Rankin, Mrs. Edward O. Phillips and Mrs. Hugh D. McLessee.

Despite the drought, the results of the Summer School of Gardening were splendid, as was amply demonstrated at the "Harvest Festival" held in the science room at Adams school Wednesday, Sept. 20.

Certificates of award were won by Ginny Dudley, who though only eight years old, had a wonderful garden; and also by Karen Sue Elliott. Honorable mention

The Rev. C. Emerson Will Open Woman's Club Season Oct. 3

The Woman's Club will present the Very Reverend Chester B. Carson, D.D., as the speaker at the opening meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at the Baldwin Library at 10 N. 10th.

Dr. Emerson is well known to Detroiters as the minister of the Northwood Congregational church for 19 years. At present Dr. Emerson is Dean of Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland, Ohio.

During the last war he served under the Y.M.C.A. in France and as a chaplain at the general hospital. He is interested in the arts and music, as is evidenced by his membership in the Founder Society of the Art Museum, and the Detroit Symphony society. He is called to speak every year to the Club and the Detroit New Century Club.

Dr. Emerson's subject will be based on his summer reading and study. The meeting is being given by the Literature Department of the club and each member may bring a guest.

Also of the program will be Miss Elizabeth Smith, who will sing a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. E. D. Mitchell. Serving on the tea committee will be Mrs. C. S. Butters, Mrs. H. D. Harris and Mrs. Seymour Adams.

Photo Society Plans Organization Session Oct. 5th at Cranbrook

A.A.U.W. Book Sale Planned For Week Of October 16th

Mrs. F. W. Sevin and her committee are working hard as the opening date, Oct. 16, of the A.A.U.W. Book Sale is drawing near. As in previous years, the city of Birmingham has been divided into areas and one member from each area has been appointed to act as captain.

This is the time to look ahead and check the Christmas shopping list, for besides many fine books, there will be children's story-books of all types, patterns, etc. The A.A.U.W. is also collecting magazines and waste paper for this sale and anyone having books, or any of the other items they wish to donate may do so by getting in touch with the nearest area captain, or Mrs. William Milligan, 3813 transportation chairman.

Those serving under Mrs. J. E. Williams, solicitation chairman, are: Mrs. George Giesse, 416 Warner court; Mrs. Stuart Gastner, 1408 Henrietta; Mrs. Glen Davis, 538 Vinewood; Mrs. S. K. Thingstad, 212 Aspen; Mrs. Mark Frank, 440 Chesterfield; Mrs. H. E. Goldsmith, 1801 Lakeland; Mrs. P. Zwickel, 407 Kimberley; Mrs. C. A. Pokorny, 670 Hawthorn; Mrs. Robert Fowler, 1240 Lake Park; Mrs. Hugh White, Charing Cross road.

High School Girls Model In Detroit

Barbara Lamb, Dolly Moore, and Joyce Carl, of Baldwin high school's retailing class, gave out a show, modeling for the J. L. Hudson Company's High School Shop Saturday, Sept. 23.

Miss Joan Campbell, who teaches the retailing class, chose these girls for their own special quality. Barbara's poise and sophistication were outstanding. Joyce's enthusiasm and smiling face and Dolly's dignified, graceful manner as though she had been exposed to modeling were all reasons for Miss Campbell's choice.
