Lt. M.K. Winborn to Marry Jean Ewen in Washington, D.C.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Ewen, of West Hartford, Conn., of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jean Ashbey Mary Ewen, to Lt. Morris Knight Winborn, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron R. Winborn, of Dewey street, Birmingham.

At present Jean is attending Mary Washington college at Fredericksburg, Va., and Lieutenant Winborn is stationed at Elizabeth City, N. C., after many months overseas service. He is a graduate of Amherst college and attended Harvard graduate school. He has been in the navy since before Pearl Harbor.

The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, April 26, at 4 o'clock, at St. John's Episcopal church, Washington, D. C. Miss Mary has asked her sister, Diana, to attend her as maid of honor. The best man will be the bridegroom's brother, James H. Winborn, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Sappington Is Musicales President

Election of new officers for the Birmingham Musicales was held Thursday at a meeting of the group in the Community House.

The officers will be formally installed in May when Mrs. H. H. Gardner, president, will hand over her gavel to the new president, Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, who will assume her duties for the ensuing year at that time.

Other newly elected officers are: Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, vice president; Mrs. David B. Ballentine, recording secretary; Mrs. Walter P. Skinner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. Raymond Woolfeenden, treasurer; and Mrs. H. Victor Solie, historian.

Members at large will be Mrs. Joseph deBruyn, Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, and Mrs. Erik Bergtzen.

A last minute change in the program was made. Margaret Peckan, of Pontiac, played a group of piano selections in place of John Johnson Chapman, who was scheduled to perform.

Miss Jean Faricy, Vassar Alumna, To Speak Here Tuesday

Plans have now been completed by the Birmingham Vassar Club for the visit of Miss Jean Faricy, traveling staff member of the Alumnae Association, who will be here on Tuesday, April 24, to talk to girls interested in Vassar college. Miss Faricy is a native of St. Paul, Minn., and has lived in Long Beach, Calif., and Evanston, Ill.

She will spend the morning at Kingswood School, showing movies and speaking to the school in assembly at 10:40. Afterward she will be available for informal interviews with girls and their parents.

At 1 p. m. Vassar alumnae will honor her at luncheon at the Community House. Mrs. William E. Rice is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Calvin Vary and Mrs. William D. Crim. Other guests of the alumnae will be Miss Margaret Angus, Miss Grace Fry, Miss Bausie, Mrs. Carol Darling, Mrs. Lewis Sappington, Mrs. Norman Lyle, and Dr. Katherine Green.

At 2:30 p. m. Miss Faricy will speak and show movies of Vassar at the Community House. Assisting will be Mrs. Leonard Lewis and Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham. The committee is urging students of Baldwin High School, their parents, and Vassar Alumnae to attend. At the conclusion of the meeting Miss Faricy will answer questions and talk informally with individual girls.

Former Resident To Sing Here April 22

Sunday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the Community House, the Young Artists' Guild will present five of its members in a concert of interest to music lovers in Birmingham.

Helen Forester, mezzo soprano, of Detroit, a former Birmingham resident, will be heard on the program in two numbers. She will sing one solo and will also be a member of the Quartet.

The Guild is newly organized, its objective being that of helping to provide opportunities for young singers to gain experience so that they may develop into mature artists.

Birthdays, Reunion And Anniversary Call For Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stephens, of Beverly road, had a day of celebration Sunday. Mr. Stephens and his sister, Mrs. George Jackson, were celebrating their birthdays; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens, celebrated their 53rd anniversary, and then to top the occasion, Col. Grant Osburn, who spent the last three years in Africa and Italy, arrived back home. Col. Osburn made his home with the Edward Stephens before entering the service.

Guests during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson and son, Roger, Mrs. Iva Funk of Marietta, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Horrocks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Osburn and Marion and Lee Osburn, and Mrs. Ray Courless and Donny, Courless of Cass City; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wright and Mr. and Mrs. P.
