 Timely items of interest and value... helpful suggestions about cooking, lighting and appliance use.

WASHER WISDOM... Don't overload your washing machine. Cramping too many clothes into the washer is frequently the cause of breakdowns. The normal load for the average washer is six to nine pounds. Do not exceed the amounts recommended by the manufacturer of YOUR machine. This table will help you estimate weight loads:

Sheet (twin size)	1 pound
Sheet (full size)	1 1/4 pounds
Pillowcases	3 to 4 pounds
Tablecloth (dinner)	1 to 2 pounds
Tablecloths (luncheon)	6 to 8 pounds
Hand towels	2 or 3 to a pound
Bath towels	2 or 3 to a pound
Men's shirts	2 to a pound
Women's dresses	2 or 3 to a pound

Wasting electricity wastes badly needed coal

MEAT STRETCHER... This recipe from our Home Service Department makes a tempting meal from leftover meats:

Meat Fritters

1 cup finely chopped cold meat (beef, lamb, chicken, etc.)	1 cup flour
Salt, pepper and a little onion juice	1 egg
1 tbsp. chopped parsley	1/2 cup milk
	2 tbsps. fat

Season meat to taste, combine with onion juice and parsley. Make a batter of flour, baking powder, egg and milk, add seasoned meat and drop by tablespoons into shallow frying pan in which fat has been heated. Cook to a golden brown on both sides and drain thoroughly. Serve hot with or without a sauce or gravy. Serves four.

HOW MUCH IS A POUND OF COAL?... A pound of coal doesn't look like much. But science has learned how to get much from little. In Detroit, Edison power plant engineers have performed miracles of squeezing more and more power from less and less coal. It is now possible (roughly speaking) to get as much usable energy from one pound of coal as a team of horses can deliver in an hour. And, through refinements in operation and improvements in plant design, the cost of electricity has been reduced steadily. Today the average residential rate for electricity is only half what it was in 1921.

CLEANING CRAFT... Wax on window sills, Venetian blinds, work surfaces and kitchen cabinets protects finishes and makes cleaning simpler.

Troop B-6, the Cranbrook neighborhood troop, is very busy these days advancing with General Eisenhower on the home front. So far in the campaign they have turned in 7,600 pounds of waste paper—and still are on the offensive with 12 tons at the immediate goal.

TRUCKER'S LUNCH
 Along convoy roads in France the American Red Cross operates a mobile "Trucker's Lunch," a new version of the Red Cross canteen. At each station, Red Cross girls in twelve-hour shifts serve coffee to G. I. drivers experiencing the cold mud of winter. Each stand serves an average of 2,000 men a day, and has emergency billets for 150 men.
