

Open House Is Held At Baldwin Tuesday

With the combined efforts of the home economics classes of Baldwin high school under the direction of Miss Gertrude Unger an open house was held Tuesday night in the Hill school home-making rooms.

The opportunity for students and parents to become acquainted with the department and each other was the purpose. Posters, pictures, furniture scenes and floor plans were on display to show the work of the home-making laboratories.

E. Sue King Speaks Vows At Nuptial Mass, Wednesday

All three morning wedding ceremonies yesterday at 10 o'clock, Elizabeth E. Sue King, daughter of Floyd C. King and the late Mrs. King, of Beverly Hills, became the bride of Lt. (jg.) Richard H. Thomas, U.S.N.A.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Thomas, of Van Valley road. The Rev. Fr. Ralph V. Barton read the service in the Holy Name church.

New Corps Head

Blanche Thomas, sister of the bridegroom, attended her maid of honor, and bridesmaid, Miss Marlene Thomas and Helen Allison. The bridesmaids wore yellow marquisette gowns and carried yellow roses and daisies. Their dresses were of yellow flowers and tulle.

Joseph Mack attended the bride and groom. The bride was escorted by Winfield and Donald Merritt of Detroit, seated the guests.

May 1st Luncheon Is Scheduled By The Woman's Club

The Birmingham Woman's Club will have its annual May luncheon on Tuesday, May 1, at the Community House at 12:30 o'clock. The fluncheon department, Mrs. D. D. Langlois, chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. J. E. Stroup is chairman of the luncheon with Mrs. R. B. Butler as co-chairman. The other members of her committee are Mrs. E. E. Martin and Mrs. R. F. Webber.

City Manager Corson Addresses Women Voters' April Meeting

Harold H. Corson, city manager of Birmingham, gave members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters a clear picture of city finances, past, present, and future at the League's April 16 meeting at the Community House.

His first problem as city treasurer before becoming manager, he said, was the refunding of the debt left by the depression, and the setting up of a new accounting system.

Benefit Tea For Michigan League

This afternoon Mrs. Hugh A. White and Mrs. Hugh L. McLeese will be co-hostesses at a large tea in Mrs. White's home on Charing Cross road. The tea is one of several being given to raise money for the building of a swimming pool.

Mrs. Thomas Thurber, president of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters, will have on exhibit at the tea a number of pictures done by members of the group. Mrs. W. Clifton Randall and Mrs. Robert F. Watt have been asked to pour.

Sale! Buy Your Summer Supply

Regular and Ceiling Price, 11 SALE PRICE

50% plus tax LIMITED TIME!

WABEEK PHARMACY

MARK BEARSS

SWING INTO SLACKS

For Comfort and Good Looks Perfect for town or country wear right through spring and summer. Trimly tailored slacks in an assortment of fabrics and colors.

MEN'S SIZES $3.95 to $11.95

Spun Rayons Rayon Wool Mixtures and 100% wool gabardines Browns, blues, tans and teal BOY'S SIZES $2.95 to $5.95

KNT POLO SHIRTS Stripes, plains, plaids and novelty weaves. Men's Sizes 89c to $2.25 Boys' Sizes 89c to $1.25

Mulholland's Men's and Boys' Departments Closed Wednesdays at 12 Noon OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS

GIRL SCOUTS

By LEE KASS

Troop 19 reports that it has started its music and dance studies. Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr. is the teacher and the square dance is especially enjoyed by the girls.

Troop 29 of Bloomfield Village has been collecting clothes for the clothing drive. The Bloomfield Village troops have presented American flags by the Protective Association.

Mrs. George B. Finch is the volunteer trainer and Mrs. Frank D. Webb is the Brownie coordinator. Mrs. Ewald E. Schaffer is the representative of the Birmingham Council on the Oakland county Girl Scout committee.

Training Chairman Mrs. George B. Finch announces national training being given in June for Camp directors, volunteer trainers, and all outdoor activities in East Troy, Wisconsin.

Day Camp dates are announced July 6th through the 13th, July 14th through the 20th, at the Cabin in Springdale Park.

Mrs. Florence E. Moe

Named commander of the Oakland County Women's Volunteer corps, Mrs. Florence E. Moe succeeds Mrs. Gertrude Barrett, Mrs. Barrett, who organized the corps and has headed it for several years, has been obliged to resign because of ill health. She will continue as executive director under Mrs. Moe.

Mrs. Moe, a resident of Farmdale and a county supervisor from that city, has directed war bond campaigns there since 1941 and was one of the first women in the county to volunteer her services in the war financing program.

FRIDAY MAY 4, has been set by the Women Golfers of Oakland Hills Country Club for their opening tournament which will be held at 11:30 in the morning. Lunch and bridge will follow and invitations have been sent to all women members. Mrs. Jack Henderson is golf chairman.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR J. SMITH have returned to Chicago after visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Fowler, of Harmon street. Col. Smith was on a 30-day leave from Gardiner General hospital where he has been a patient since wounded in Italy 10 months ago. He will undergo further treatment at Gardiner hospital.

MR. and MRS. NELSON BELL, of Bates street, arrived home last week after spending the past two and a half months in Miami, Fla., to lead that their son, John W. Bell, A. M. 1/C, U. S. Navy, was on his way home from San Diego, Calif. He left on Monday with his wife and two small daughters for Chicago, where they will make their home. John attends special school.

MRS. DONALD E. CLARK, who was the guest for a week of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clark, of Oak street, has returned to her home in Berhard, Colo.

STANLEY E. EVERINGHAM, S. P. C. returned to Great Lakes Thursday after spending a 2-day leave at his home on Daines street.

MARSHALL CLARK, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Clark, was host to a group of his friends who helped him celebrate his 4th birthday with a party in his home on Hendrix street Saturday, April 21. Guests included Jimmie, Robert, Chippie Trout, Scott Maentz, Peter Welch, Skippy Trout, Gary Welch, and Ricky Hunter.

MRS. R. H. GEER, of Western Springs, Ill., was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Geer, of Fairfax road.

MR. and MRS. BERRIEN C. KETCHUM, of Safford road, returned home Monday from Del Ray Beach, Fla.

MR. and MRS. ALFRED J. LAFELLE have returned home from New York where they have been for the past two weeks.

CAPTAIN and MRS. HARRIS MACHUS returned home Friday from Chicago where Mrs. Machus had gone to join him earlier in the week. Major Machus has just recently been liberated from a German prisoner of war camp.

MR. and MRS. CARL F. SITTA, of Oak street, had as their week end guest Mrs. Margaret Warner, of Lake Forest, Ill.

Read Eccentric Want Ads for that Hard-to-Get article!

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR E. ULRICH were hosts to thirty guests Sunday morning when the members of the club had breakfast in their home on Hawthorn road. All the guests came in cars and in the favorite plaid shirts.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES E. REBERT have returned to their home on Puritan road after having spent several weeks in St. Petersburg, Fla.

SECRETARY OF STATE STETTINIUS has asked the League of Women Voters to send a representative to the San Francisco conference. Mrs. Anne Hartwell Johnstone, former program secretary of the department of government and foreign policy of the national league, will attend the conference and the league's representative.

VICKIE NUNNELLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nunneley, of Bingham Lane, was hostess at a neighborhood party Saturday night. Vickie was celebrating her birthday.

MRS. RICHARD YOUNG, of Wesley drive, was hostess at a bridge luncheon in her home last Wednesday afternoon.

April 29 is the date Orchard Lake Country Club will entertain new members at tea in the club house.

MRS. JACK D. FULLER, of Pilgrimage road, is leaving May 4 to spend a two months' vacation in California. Several of her friends have been given for her recently. Mrs. Roy Keifer, of Willow Lane, entertained Thursday at a dinner bridge and Mrs. Charles Hawley was hostess at a dinner party Saturday night in her honor.

GOING TO ANN ARBOR TOMORROW will be Mrs. John S. Lambie, Mrs. H. G. Wood and Mrs. Louis Hascall, of the board of directors and Miss Madeline Cooke, librarian, of Baldwin public library, for a meeting of the librarians and trustees of District No. 2, of the Michigan Library Association. Mrs. Lambie is to take charge of the trustees section of the meeting and lead a discussion on "the relationship of library to the library and to the public." Miss Cooke will be the representative of the executive board of the state association at the meeting.

MISS LINDO MOORE, cataloger at Baldwin public library, who has been spending her annual vacation in Pompano, Fla., is expected home this week.

FENTON R. MATHEWS was the guest speaker for the concluding meeting of the Better Homes and Gardens Club of Pontiac at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hathaway Thursday afternoon.

RAY A. PALMER returned Sunday evening from Stockton, Calif., and was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Vincent E. Schumacher and baby son, who plan to spend some time in Birmingham. Mrs. Schumacher's husband, Lieut. Commandr. Schumacher, is on active duty in American naval submarine service in Pacific waters.

JANE FLETCHER, A.M.M. 1/C, who has been stationed at Bunker Hill, Ind., for nearly two years, is home on leave visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Fletcher, of Westchester street, prior to her going to Hawaii in May. It is believed that Miss Fletcher is the first Birmingham Wave to be sent overseas.

FRANKLIN WOMEN TO SPONSOR BRIDGE PARTY The Franklin Community Circle is sponsoring a bridge-luncheon Thursday, May 10, at Deven Gables. The planning committee for the 12:30 luncheon are asked to have their reservations in by May 6.

Mrs. S. E. Hammett, chairman of the planning committee and assisting her are Mrs. Howard Love, Mrs. W. W. Dyer, Mrs. N. A. Thurston, Mrs. William Hyland and Mrs. Edwin Bleich.

SOCIAL NEWS IN BRIEF

FRIDAY MAY 4, has been set by the Women Golfers of Oakland Hills Country Club for their opening tournament which will be held at 11:30 in the morning. Lunch and bridge will follow and invitations have been sent to all women members. Mrs. Jack Henderson is golf chairman.

Gay Fabrics to Sew For Spring

Your complete spring wardrobe awaits you in this outstanding selection of fabrics. Cotton florals for your morning dress... piques for a sparkling afternoon silhouette and even exquisite dimity for that summer formal you've been dreaming about. Many more too numerous to list here.

SPUN RAYON PRINTED CREPE SPRING WOOLS Plaids, Stripes and plain colors PATTERNS by Hollywood and Butterick We will order Vogue patterns for you. OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS BEGINNING MAY 4th Closed Wednesdays at 12:00 Noon

PUBLIC AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, May 1, at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 2, and Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. ONLY INSPECTION BEFORE AUCTION Sunday and Monday, April 29 and 30, 1 to 6 p.m.

THIS SALE COMPRISES: Modern and Antique Dining Room, Bedroom and Living Room Furniture, Theodore Haviland and Dresden Dinner Services Complete, Sterling Silver Flatware in various patterns, and many other items.

ASHRAWY'S ART GALLERY 47 East Adams Ave., Detroit—Ca 7988 Formerly Woman's Exchange Building