Public Poll On Dumbarton Oaks Proposals Will Be Taken Here April 15-

Do you think the United States should join a world organization? Do you think the United States should share the responsibility of insuring peace? Should this responsibility go as far as (a) using our share of armed force? Do you have a general picture of the world organization proposed at the Dumbarton Oaks conference? These are the questions to be asked in the poll of public opinion to be taken Monday through Wednesday during Dumbarton Oaks week in Detroit, set for April 15-22.

Important Movie Coming Here April 13

That special Dumbarton Oaks film, short, "Watchtower Over Tomorrow," is coming to the Birmingham theater April 13 to 19, according to an announcement of Howard Holab, manager. The picture deals with the Dumbarton Oaks plan for a United Nations organization. The picture was made and is being distributed for the State Department and the O.W.I. in his prologue to the picture Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., emphasizes the importance of the theme. He said "Never since 1787, when our Constitution was drafted, have we, as a people, faced a greater opportunity, a greater challenge, a greater test."

WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES

Of the many different kinds of athletic equipment distributed by War Prisoners Aid to Americans in German prison camps, the two in greatest demand are boxing gloves and athletic shoes. Since the camp commandants will not allow prisoners to subject their general issue shoes to the punishment of American athletes, there sent by this Community War Chest agency are especially needed.

HOW WE DID IN '44

MICHIGAN BELL REPORTS MORE BUSINESS—LESS PROFIT

With Michigan's mines and farms, factories and shipyards, delivering more and war goods, the use of our services in 1944 was greater than ever. All essential telephone needs were met. We served more people than ever; and generally we served them well.

(COMPARISONS BELOW ARE FOR 1939, EUROPE'S FIRST WAR YEAR, AND 1944, OUR THIRD WAR YEAR)
