Dickson-Graves Vows Spoken At St. James Church

At a simple ceremony in St. James church, Saturday morning at 10:30, the bride and groom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnston Dickson, of London, Ontario, and Mrs. Stanley Anderson Graves, Jr., Lieutenant (jg) of the United States Navy, son of Dean and Mrs. Stanley Anderson Graves, of Highland Park. The Rev. William Hill of Christ Church, Cranbrook, read the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was of traditional white satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a very full skirt and extended into a short train. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap of white satin. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladioli and strapagons.

Janet Graves, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of green tulle with a sweetheart neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her shoe cap was of Brussels lace and she carried lemon-colored carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dickson chose a street length dress of green crepe, a large log-horn hat, and brown accessories. Margaret Graves, another sister of the groom, played a group of violin selections while the guests were assembling.

Lt. (jg) Philip Matthews, USNR, of Mississippi, acted as best man and Stuart Graves, Navy V-12, acted as the groom's best man.

Following the wedding, a breakfast was held at Devon Gables. When the newlyweds left to spend their honeymoon at the summer home of the groom's parents at Evergreen Park, Higgins Lake, Michigan, Mrs. Graves was wearing a beige and brown light wool suit, a large brown hat, and brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow daisies.

Older Group Will Give Two Plays At Theatre Next Week

With Miss Ruth Hall directing Cranbrook's Summer Theatre School will present its younger seniors in two performances of "What a Life," Clifford Goldsmith's raucous farce of school life, on Monday, August 5, and Tuesday, August 7.

On Thursday, Aug. 9, the older seniors, post-graduates and instructors will begin a three-night run of the Drayton-Kaufmann farce, "First Lady," a play made famous some years ago by Jane Cowell. Carl G. Wonnberger and Mrs. Thomas W. Anderson will direct "First Lady."

Henry Price of Birmingham will play the Henry Aldrich role in "What a Life," and Janice Thomas and Nancy Guest will play Miss Shea; Terry Hatch, Mr. Nelson; Sally Gans and Joyce Wood, Miss Patterson; Jo Anne Wonnberger and Marion Craig, Miss Pike; Ruth Oldberg and Marcia Wentz, Miss Eggleston; Marcia Wensell and Barbara Ann Arnold, Miss Johnson; Mary Powers and Jo Anne Yearsley, Barbara; Patti Davis and Phyllis Eversart, Gertrude; and Christine and Peter Hartsuff, Bill; Pete Good, Veshter; Knight Houghton, Mr. Bradley; Bob Brumgar, Mrs. Bigelow; Jeannet Barnes and Joyce Dickinson, Miss Wheeler; Rex Nichols and Mary Baker, Mrs. Aldrich; Austin Jones and Dava Bellentine, Ferguson, the detective; and Dabac Press, a student.

Nancy Sanders, Linda Gaud, Anne Bellentine, Ted Mansfield, Frances Newhall and Dora Egan will head a large cast in "First Lady." All performances will be open to the public.

August 10th Set As Wedding Date

Jean Fouracre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Fouracre, of Townsend street, has set August 10th as the date of her marriage to Robert B. Thompson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Myron Thompson, of Birmingham. The ceremony will take place in the First Baptist church at seven o'clock in the evening.

Several parties have already been given in Jean's honor. Recently Miss Grace McWittie, of Waterford, entertained at a kitchen shower in her home. On July 17 Mrs. Donald Fouracre and Mrs. Clyde Collins were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in Mrs. Collins' home on Frank street. Another shower was given on July 27 by the girls from the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. where Jean was formerly employed. The shower was given in the home of Miss Gail Reed in Royal Oak.

Mother and Daughter Hostesses At Shower

Mrs. L. E. Kolgrov and her daughter, Jeannette, will be co-hostesses tonight at a kitchen shower at their home on Puritan road in honor of Marion Gilbreath, newest Birmingham bride.

Guests will include Marion's mother, Mrs. Wm. Gilbreath, her sister, Nan, Mrs. Ralph Skinner, Mrs. Peter Hogg, Mrs. Richard Wallace, Mrs. Wallace E. Campbell, Mrs. John D. Taylor, Nancy Kirk, Mrs. Bruce Dods, Margaret Newell, Mrs. Robert Navarroz, Betty Stoll, Caroly Wright, Mrs. William Conway, Mrs. W. H. FRAMED!

TO GAIN the greatest enjoyment in the possession of photographic portraits of those you love—give thought to the framing! Let it be determined by the photograph itself—its size, character, subject—and further, by the room in which you wish to place it. Thus, your favored photographs will be not only appropriately, but ideally framed!

The many frames awaiting your selection at LaBelles are far from ordinary, and in such an extensive range that just the right frame is assured. We would describe them for you here but, after all, correct frame selection is quite exacting—and is always most satisfactory when the photograph to be framed is brought to our shop; for then one may safely determine whether it should be glass, leather, silver or wood—quaint or modern—small or large—round or square—narrow or wide—in brief, ideally framed!
