Look Out! There's a Factory Under There!

Even from a short distance it looks like a sparsely settled residential area, but actually it's camouflage over the Douglas Aircraft factory at Santa Monica, Calif. The camouflage, put up at government order, is now being removed.

Telephone Operators Forego Day Off For Local Celebration

Although Wednesday, Aug. 15, was a holiday for almost everyone in Birmingham there was a group of people to whom it meant extra added hours of work. The Michigan Bell Telephone operators stayed on the job and many former telephone operators volunteered to help take the thousands of calls that were pouring in.

Even the operators who were off duty or on vacation came in to help relieve the situation. All operators had remained on call since the very first rumors of peace came through.
