Presbyterian Men's Club Picnic Attracts 150 to Springdale

One of the liveliest and jolliest of the several church picnics held at Springdale park this spring was that of the Presbyterian Men's Club last week, with about 150 attending. The affair, arranged by the club officers, was for the families of the members.

Before and after the family picnic there were games and stunts for children of all ages.

Those participating ranging from three years old up to nearly seventy. The men had a putting contest, barbecue and golf for themselves with the women having nail painting, races, zipper fixing, belt throwing and similar entertainments. The children had a long list of lively affairs.

Club officers include Walter Smith, president; A. S. McCull, vice president; Gilbert Gray, secretary and Myron Whittney, treasurer.
