Vernors Observe 35th Anniversary

Observing their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary, the James Vernors of North Harasdale road were hosts at a dinner party for 160 guests at Bloomfield Hills Country Club last Saturday night.

Following cocktails in the lounge, the guests were served buffet tables which were set up on the glassed-in terrace. Place cards were Gay Nineties song pamphlets and from these the guests found their places at the U-shaped table which surrounded the ballroom floor or at small tables which were placed around the room.

Chrysantheums in tall shades and English holly were used to decorate the tables and more holly added a festive note to the entire appearance of the room.

Strolling musicians were on hand to entertain the guests and in addition Mrs. George Dwellley and other drama-minded guests, honored the members of the party with a series of clever skits.
