Poppleton PTA Hears Dental Consultant

Mrs. Vivian Moore, president, presided over the regular meeting of the Poppleton Parent-Teacher Association which was held last Friday evening, December 7, at the school.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Gerald Oaks, program chairman, introduced the speakers for the evening, Mrs. Charles Davis and Miss Ruth Rogers.

Mrs. Davis, storyteller, entertained the group with the rendition of "Candle in the Forest" and "The Christmas Cobwebs," by Temple Bailey. Miss Rogers, who is a consultant in dental health from the Michigan Department of Health, gave a talk on dental hygiene.

During carol singing, pictures were shown on the shadow screen and, at the conclusion of the program, which was served by the room mothers.

HIS CAR BURNS UP
In these days when cars are hard to get, along comes a fire and burns one up. The car belonged to Arthur Safian and the blaze was Monday night, near the intersection of East Long Lake road and Kensington, in Bloomfield Hills. Police discovered the blaze and flames hurried to the scene but the car had been afire too long.

Commercial oil was discovered in the Saginaw and Muskegon valleys in 1928.
