Surprise Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Patricia Schooley had a pleasant surprise on Tuesday night, Dec. 18, when she found that what was to be a going away party was also a shower. Mrs. J. Ray Morley and her daughter, Barbara, were hostesses at their home on Euclid drive to honor Patricia, who is leaving her position at Cranbrook School. Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley of Riveroak road, will be the bride of her marriage to S/Sgt. Howard P. Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Eaton of Riveroak road, soon after her fiance arrives from Europe.

Guests at the miscellaneous shower included Jeanne Trille, Caroline Bunting, Mrs. H. P. Halladay, and Mrs. Robert Woodruff of Birmingham; Miss Pearl Peterson and Mrs. Dorothy J. Hall of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Orville Fairbanks and Mrs. Paul R. Volmer of Pontiac.

FERDALE CAMERA CLUB The Ferndale Camera Club will meet Thursday, Dec. 20 at the St. Luke's Church House, Livernois at Lewiston at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Leo Kandel will talk on "Lighting—The Secret of Successful Pictures." Mr. Kandel will be assisted by Miss Nell McGuire who will model for the demonstration. Visitors interested in photography are welcome to attend and are asked to bring their cameras and films as there will be other models assisting Miss McGuire, giving the amateur an opportunity to snap many fine pictures.

A Handbag Can Carry Chic, Too

Five handbag ideas to lend chic to your costume: Upper left—A dressy black satin, draped and shirred, set off with hand-carved lucite frame of sunburst design. Upper right—Brown suede cloth, accented by two teardrop mock tortoise shell ornaments, to be draped over the wrist. Lower left—Black satin in tapering box shape, with side ash handle and lucite clasp. Lower right—Pouch type black studded top with black plastic frame and chateleine handle. Center—Braidette design of draped black felt in basket effect, with wide mock tortoise shell handle.

Numerous Parties Honor Bride-Elect

Final plans and parties are now being made in connection with the marriage of Shirley Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Craig of "Windwhistle," Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills.

The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan will read the 3 o'clock service on Friday evening, Dec. 22, when Shirley will speak her vows before the main altar in Christ Church Cranbrook to Richard Townsend Denyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Denyes of Detroit, and formerly of Birmingham.

A reception will be held at the Detroit Boat Club immediately after the ceremony.

Jill Craig, sister of the bride-elect, will be maid of honor and Shirley has as another sister, Mrs. Leonard Miller of Ypsilanti, and Anne L'Hommiedes de Toledo to be her bridesmaids. Pauline Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig, Jr., will be flower girl. She and her fiancé have recently returned to Bloomfield Hills from San Francisco.

Harry M. Denyes, Jr., will act as best man for his brother and Capt. Robert Craig, William F. Thomas, Jr., Bruce Craig and William Beech will show the guests to their seats.

Among the many parties being given in honor of Shirley are a tea and a dinner dance. Mrs. M. S. Perry Williams and her two daughters, Mrs. Philip Maxwell and Mrs. W. Richard Flannery, will be hostesses at the tea on Friday, Dec. 21, at their home on Adams road and Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry Holmes have invited 30 guests for dinner and dancing at the Detroit Athletic Club on Saturday, Dec. 22.

Mrs. Lloyd G. Grinnell of Detroit will be hostess at luncheon and kitchen shower on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at the Detroit Golf Club and on Friday, Dec. 14, Mrs. William F. Thomas, Jr. honored Shirley with a bathroom shower.

A personal shower and luncheon was given by Mrs. Warner J. Forsyth, Jr. of Grosse Ile on Tuesday, at the Detroit Golf Club. The bride-elect's parents will give the rehearsal dinner in their home on Dec. 27.

THANK YOU

for Your Response to Our Announcement of last Week

We were deeply gratified at having so many of our old friends drop in to see us and of having an opportunity to make quite a few new ones

We Have Some Good News For You

At "Sunny Grove Farm," which is owned and operated by us for the benefit of our restaurants, we have just dressed our 6 fine "porkers" from our registered Duroc Jersey herd. These fine animals have been strictly grain fed "all the way" and we can promise you some real eating pleasure for some time to come

We suggest—that you drop in at your convenience and try a nice order of Pork Chops, Roast Pork or Home Made Sausage from this fine meat

You'll Enjoy It!
