Servicemen's Question Box

A question and answer column, especially for Bir-mingham servicemen, both discharged and still in the service, and their families, will be conducted through the Men in the Service department of The Eccentric by Jack Thomas, veterans' counselor for Rirmingham.

All inquiries and questions from servicemen and their families should be addressed to "Servicemen's Question Box," care of Jack Thomas, Veteran's Counselor, Community House, Birmingham, Michigan, or may be left in the editorial room of The Eccentric.

This department will be started on January 2, with the first answers to appear in The Eccentric on Thursday, January 10th.

All communications to Mr. Thomas should be signed, with the proper address of the person making the inquiry. These names will not be published in the column, but are needed to make the inquiry authentic.
