Legion Auxiliary Brings Gift Shop to Veterans

Christmas shopping was made easy for 1100 veterans of two world wars at Fort Custer by members of the Michigan American Legion Auxiliary. A Christmas shop was opened at the Veterans Administration Facility and the men "shopped" for their families without money and without leaving the hospital. The Legion Auxiliary took over the problem of wrapping and shipping the gifts which were mailed to the forty-eight states and to Poland and Sweden. The four thousand gifts in the shops' "stock" were made and donated by Auxiliary members from the 329 units in the Department of Michigan.
