

Lathrup Townsite News

By Lillian Diederich

Sgt. Francis Evert received his new promotion Nov. 8 on Oahu, Hawaii, where he was stationed the past year. In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evert of honor court, he stated that he would leave for home in early December. He has been in the armed service nearly four years. A brother, Milton, has been in France 15 months. Mr. Evert's brother, Cpl. Marvin Evert, is home from the South Pacific after an absence of 39 months. He was promoted to sergeant Nov. 15. Frank Evert, Jr., celebrated his birthday.

Lieut. Colonel Oliver D. Loomis is enroute home from Germany. He will meet his wife, Josephine, in Chicago and then come home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loomis, of Lathrup townsite. Christmas will be spent in Dallas, Ill., with Mrs. Oliver Loomis' parents. The four will motor there for the holidays.

Recently Mrs. Loomis won a $50 bond when she gave the correct answer to a question over the phone on the "Know Your America" program. The question: "Give me liberty or give me death!" The answer—Patrick Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Phillips bought the McCrory home on Lathrup boulevard. The McCrorys moved to Detroit.

Alan Leedy, seaman 2/c, surprised his parents Thanksgiving day by arriving home for the festivities. He is stationed at Chicago Navy Pier.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peppiatt visited their farm at Coldwater for a few days last week, taking "Grandpa" Peppiatt back with them. He was home to visit his son and daughter-in-law for the holiday. Ann Peppiatt will give a recital Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. Leroy Cline of Saratoga boulevard. She will play the piano and accordion and will sing a few songs. Tea will follow the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Delig and daughter, Pat, visited New York City last week. It was Pat's first trip. Among the shows they attended were "Suite of Normandy" and "Polonaise." They also saw Frank Sinatra at Radio City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reed of Chicago, formerly of Lathrup Townsite, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth M. Reed, to Cpl. Robert F. Diederich, flight engineer at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Diederich of the Town-
