

A Twofold Prescription Responsibility

A dependable Pharmacy is without a doubt the most important institution with which you deal.

When sickness strikes, the skill of the Pharmacist and the medicines prescribed become equally important. Every prescription involves the responsibility of expert compounding with medicaments having professional recognition.

It is the privilege of this Pharmacy to make available to the Physician and Patient, a complete stock of Pharmaceuticals, recognized for their uniform potency, purity and efficacy.

This conference is held under the auspices of the National Council of the Holy Women. The Rev. Father Laval Landry, of Berkley, and Dr. E. A. Christie, of Pontiac, will also address the group. Anyone desiring transportation may contact Father Duncanson.

There will be a continuation of the three cornered discussion on the Yalta Conference when Mrs. J. J. Shain's International Relations class meets next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock for its weekly meeting in the Community House. Mrs. William E. Atchley, Mrs. Loren O. Blunt, Mrs. Miller Charleston and Mrs. Charles Rust will be the participants. Everyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Michael Kelly Has Second Birthday

Michael Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly, celebrated his second birthday Saturday, Feb. 17, at his home on Hazelwood. Six little playmates helped him celebrate the occasion. The guests were Tatu Jean Ward and her mother, Mrs. Leo Ward, and Mrs. James Murray, of Detroit; Mrs. Tom Schooley and son, Randy; Mrs. William Eton and Caroline; Elizabeth Ann and Mrs. Gregory Fredericks.

Bob Winger and Mickey's grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, and his aunt, Mrs. Vern Ward. Mickey's six-month-old sister, Kathleen, helped to receive and entertain the guests.

Nancy Fletcher Is Married At St. James Church

St. James Episcopal church was the setting for the 4 o'clock service that united Nancy Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L.

Mr. J. T. Watson, Fletcher, of Webster street, and Grogan Joe T. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Watson, of Pontiac, in marriage, Monday afternoon. Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiated at the ceremony.

Nancy, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gray wool suit with an aqua hat and a white prayer book with a white orchid on it.

Aviation Machinist Mate Second Class Jane Fletcher, of the WAVES, came from her station at an afternoon dress of rockers.

Following the service a reception for about 70 guests was held in the Community House. Mrs. Fletcher received her guests wearing a tulle dress of royal blue and a corsage of gardenias. Both husbands were black accessories.

Before the couple left for their honeymoon, a dinner for the wedding party and immediate families was held at the Kingsley Inn. Following the honeymoon Ensign Watson will report for duty at Harvard and his wife will return to her studies at Central Michigan College.

Opening Hour For the Public Speaking Club Changed to 8 o'clock

The Birmingham Public Speaking Club is now holding regular weekly meetings, 8 to 10 p. m. Thursdays, at the Community House, Russell Near, president, calls attention to the time change. Meetings formerly started at 7:30, but committee who use the 6:10 train asked that it be set back. Change starts on the 20th.

A ten weeks course of instruction has just begun, and Walter Patton, secretary, who has been elected treasurer also, urges that further enrollment be made promptly to take full advantage of the course. Nominal costs are being pro-rated among members on a co-operative basis. Individuals buy their own text books.
