Elementary School Basketball League In Saturday Games

The first games of the elementary school league were played last Saturday morning in Baldwin gym with a strong Adams team defeating Pierce 10-4, and Quorton nosing out Holy Name in a thrilling battle 9-6.

Adams, though falling to win a game last year, took early lead and was never headed. Harris and McKinley looked good for Adams while Pope and Ward stood out for Pierce.

With its height advantage offset by a scrappy Holy Name five, Quorton was forced to stave off a desperate fourth quarter rally, and the margin of victory for Quorton being provided by Daddo who made the only foul shot of the day. Mularnev and Wilkinson were high scorers for Quorton while Simpson and Fredricks took honors for Holy Name.

After the games Coach Lloyd Cooper showed basketball pictures, showing the fundamentals of the game.

The contests will continue every Saturday morning for nine weeks with the first game at 10 o'clock. The coaches working under Coach Cooper's supervision, include Adams, Dick McKenzie, Tom Hubbard; Holy Name, Father Barton; Quorton, Bill Eade and Jack Plister; Pierce, Jack Gerrard and Neil Sincer.

The players have been requested to enter through the locker room door and the spectators through the Maple entrance.

Barnum To Elect Officers Monday

Barnum Junior High will elect new Student Council officers Monday, January 15, 1945.

There will be an assembly the first period in the morning and all candidates will be presented by their respective campaign managers.

The following petitions have been filed for offices: president, William Gilbreath and William Robertson; vice-president, James McCall, and Hal Rosborough; treasurer, William Plant, Bruce Smith, and Bud Thomas; and secretary, Barbara Hughes and Ann St. Denis.

Voting will take place in the home rooms at 1 o'clock.

Dick Adams is the retiring council president and Miss Gladys Rogers is the faculty adviser.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By ANN NONYMOUS

Hi, Kids!

The Maple knows she's been neglecting you, but just remember the much used phrase "c'est la guerre," the French family feud and big gone by with loads of enjoyment for all.

The basketball game set the pace for some of Birmingham's younger set Friday night. Annie couldn't help but notice the smiling, Sally Kreidler, Norma Swisher, Lois Brown, Barbie Foster, Paddy Colgrove, Lois Steele, Bud Daeschner, Dianne Helgeson, Pete Good, Jean Wyckoff, John Nichols, Ted Hertz, John Bloomstrom, Dick Kent, John Anderson, Tom Zoellin, and Bud Gasser vigorously cheering our team.

In full swing, too, was a tobogganing party at Cranbrook. Those warmly bundled up taking part in all the fun were Sis Daeschner, Pete Whitlaw, Nancy Keyes, Guy Schmidt, Marvin Blank, Steve Miller, Gwen O'Rourke, Bud Aikens, Jo Fluor, Jackie Moses, Leo Bar, David Ballentine, Joy Stark and Bob Grindley. After getting their fill of snow and ice, they hiked back to Pete's home where they feasted on grilled cheese sandwiches and cokes and ended a perfect evening by dining.

The first Saturday night dance of 1945 was a big success. Lazing and dancing to the music of Chuck Adams and his band were Sammie, Tom, Dick, Barb Fox, Jim Watt, Marty Fox, Bill Bones, Anna Ballentine, Bill Finkle, Nancy Keyes, Barbara Jody Lander, Bob King, G. J. Maxwell, Dave Wangburg, Mary Quorton, Bill Spradley, Barbara man, George Landis, Greta Sehn, Bob Brunzbror, Mary Belton, Virginia Hays, Ann Stoydy, Denn McAllister, Nancy Chapel, John Bones, Elizabeth Ellis, Walter Randall, Frances West, Dan Eclar, Carolyn Kinn, Bill Curtis, Pat Page, Jack Plister, Norm Leatherer, Dave Widdell, Helen Brode, and George Miller.

Annie and her friends were glad to see many service men home for the week end. Some of them were Newell Wright, Dick Hopkins, Pete Gohm, and Bob O'Brien.

In closing, Annie wishes to congratulate some of the more recent students. We're all wishing Sharon Murghy, Shep Crim, Jeanne Helgeson, Andy Burlingame, Nancy Allen, Jay Meyer, Ben Van Winkle, (Chuck Van Floterem, Nancy Thomas, Jim Ritter, Mary Ann Foster, Leon Thurston, Barbara Black, Frank Mimminger, Suzie Spiegel, and Mickey Delahanty the best of luck.

Annie hopes to be with you again soon, so until then,

Love, ANNIE.

Local Drop Game To Hazel Parkers

By JACK GERRARD

In their fourth road game of the season, Baldwin's hand-courters lost to a skilled, alert Hazel Park five, last Friday. The Parkers crew excelled in everything, downing Birmingham 55-15. Their defense was rugged, the offense brainy, and at times they played some of the best ball seen this year.

The Maples again were troubled by inaccuracy at the baskets, but this can be accounted for by the Vikings' fine defensive play. They seldom let the locals work the ball into really dangerous territory, and their play under the baskets was excellent.

Five of Birmingham's points came on free throws while Hazel Park connected for eleven charity tosses. Although not a rough game, 25 fouls were called. With the Maples getting 16 of these, Friday's defeat made Baldwin's third of the year.

In a more recent game, the battle that featured much more polished basketball than usual, the locals came from behind to win. Jim Lanth was top scorer for Birmingham with 8 points while Eastland led Hazel Park with 11 points.

Maples Play First Home Game of Year On Tuesday Night

By WELDON MACDONALD

The Maples crew sound plays its first home game of the season on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at Baldwin gym when it faces an experienced five from Henry Ford Trade School.

The Craftsmen have played four games ringing up three victories over East Detroit, Ann Arbor and River Rouge. Their only setback was at the hands of Fordson by a score of 27-22.

The locals' record is not so impressive as that of Henry Ford Trade School, being handed their third defeat of the season at Hazel Park last Friday night.

The victors will hold high ends in their defeat of the season at Hazel Park last Friday night.

The high school will play a dramatic class to present two plays.

Bloomfield Hills Dramatic Class To Present Two Plays

The plays to be presented by the dramatic class of Bloomfield Hills high school will be given the 18th and 19th of January.

The committees for arranging the program are as follows: tickets, Bill Saunders, Camilla Carl, and Betty Jo Lander; program, Gordon Laund, Dick Laund, Sauskoj, and Barbara Fry; advertising, Betty Sawyer, Cynthia Scott, and Dick Laund; properties, Thomas Miner, Doris Hillman, and Ann Collins. All seats are reserved and tickets will go on sale tomorrow.

The senior class members are planning their annual skip day. They are hoping to spend a week end at a winter resort skiing and tobogganing.

January Grads Going To Detroit for Their Big Annual Skip Day

The January '45 graduating class is going to spend its Skip Day in Detroit this year taking in some of the entertainment offered there. Their day will start at Noon January 17 when they will board the bus to Detroit. Upon arrival half of the class is going to the movie, while the other half takes in a recreation center.

They will not meet again for dinner at Fern Hill Village and at 8:30 will see "Winged Victory" at the Wilson theatre.

Some are then spending the night at the Book-Cadillac and the rest are coming home. They will return to school in the afternoon.

Tom Hubbard is chairman of the committee which planned this busy schedule and members are Fred Plister, Richard McCoy, Jack Daeschner, Bernard Lawson, and Gwen O'Rourke.

January Grads Hold Annual Class Dinner At Community House

The semi-annual year dinner, first affair for the January Graduating class was held Friday evening at the Community House with a keeno party after the dinner.

The class will read by Shirley Smith and Gwen O'Rourke read the prophecy, the theme of which was a class reunion in 1955. Joyce Watkins and George Landis announced the returns of the mock election.

Talks were made by Ross A. Warner, principal, and Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent.

Orchids were presented to Grace Boves, valedictorian, and Jean Blinn, salutatorian, whose honors were announced at the dinner.

The gifts to Mrs. Ann Lueh and Hal Helmer, class advisers, were presented by Fred Plister, 12A president, Ronald Johnson made the farewell speech.

Chairman of the dinner committee was Mercedes Engel and her members were George Landis, Catherine Oltchelsner, Jeanne Norton, Ruth Smith, Eleanor Smith, Dorothy Shaw, Ronald Johnson, and Jimmy Sackett.

Students Enjoy 'Sing' For First Assembly

The first issue of a "newspaper" to be sent each January 12, was planned and written by the journalism class for members of the January class of 1945. The letter will consist of some school news but mostly of the addresses, and notes of interest about their classmates. A similar letter will be sent each January for five years when on January 12, 1949, the class will have a commemorative dinner. The staff editing the "newspaper" consist of Barbara Fox, editor; Diana Roosevelt, assistant; and Marilyn Harris, circulation manager.
