James W. Burtraw Marries In Florida

Sunday afternoon, Jan. 21, at 4 o'clock Jean Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., spoke her marriage vows to Cpl. James W. Burtraw, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Burtraw, of Fourteen Mile road, at St. John's Lutheran church at Jacksonville. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a dressmaker wool suit with black accessories. She wore a corsage of rosebuds and carried a white prayer book. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. William L. Jones, who wore a pale blue wool suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Albert L. Smith, the bride's brother, served as best man. Following the service a buffet supper was served to about twenty guests, after which the couple left for a short honeymoon at St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Burtraw left Birmingham for Florida on Jan. 12.
